HOUSE JOURNAL

SESSION 1981

FIRST DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, January 14, 1981

This day, in accordance with the Constitution of the State of North Carolina and G.S. 120-11.1, which fixes the date for the meeting of the General Assembly of North Carolina, the Members of the House of Representatives assemble in the House Chamber of the State Legislative Building in the City of Raleigh at 12:00 Noon and are called to order by the Honorable Thad Eure, Secretary of State.

Prayer is offered by Dr. Albert G. Edwards, Pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, North Carolina, as follows:

"Eternal and Almighty God, whether prayer is free or reimbursed, it is appropriate that we pause to pray for soon the members of this house will make crucial and critical promises and confirm their earnestness with an oath; an oath that commits them to dependence upon a power mightier than themselves.

"To keep the promises of the day from being empty ones enable these men and women to become voices and not just echoes. Enable them to be Thy possessions rather than the possessions of the powerful and the persuasive; and being Thy possessions may they know the joy of becoming agents for the highest and the greatest good.

"May the leadership of the House be not paternal nor permissive nor autocratic; rather may it be persuasive; determining worthy goals and then by example and encouragement stimulating the membership of the House to utilize their best potential to achieve worthwhile and praiseworthy goals.

"O God, speak again to each one here the words of Paul to Timothy. 'God has not given us the spirit of fear, but of power and love and a sound mind.' (2 Timothy 1:7) Amen."

The roll is called and all of the Members-elect except Mr. S. Thomas Rhodes and Mr. George Ronald Taylor answer when their names are called. Mr. Thomas and Mr. Taylor are granted a leave of absence for today.

The one hundred eighteen Members-elect who are present, appear with proper certificates of election, take and subscribe to the following oath of office, which is administered by the Honorable Joseph Branch, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina.

OATH FOR MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

"I do solemnly swear or affirm that I will support the Constitution and laws of the United States; and,

"I do solemnly and sincerely swear or affirm that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to the State of North Carolina, and to the constitutional powers and authorities which are or may be established for the government thereof; and that I will endeavor to support, maintain, and defend the Constitution of said State, not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States, to the best of my knowledge and ability; and,

"I do solemnly swear or affirm that I will faithfully discharge my duties as a Member of the 1981 House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, to the best of my skill and ability, so help me, God."

One hundred eighteen Members having answered the roll call, the Secretary of State declares a quorum is present.

The Secretary of State announces that the first order of business is the election of a Speaker and declares that nominations are in order.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Representative Ernest B. Messer places in nomination the name of Representative Liston B. Ramsey, of Madison County, as Speaker of the 1981 House of Representatives.

"I am honored to have the privilege of placing in nomination for Speaker of the North Carolina House of Representatives for the 1981-83 term, my colleague and fellow representative from the 44th House District, the Honorable Liston B. Ramsey.

"Liston is a native mountaineer.

"He was born at Marshall in Madison County and was educated in the Madison County Public Schools and at Mars Hill College.

"Liston served in the Military Forces during World War II and is a member of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

"He concurrently and successfully pursued careers in business and government.

"He was a successful merchant, investor, and business man.

"Liston served 12 years on the Marshall Board of Aldermen and is beginning a tenth term in the North Carolina House of Representatives.

"He is married to the former Florence McDevitt. They have a daughter, Mrs. Martha Ramsey Geouge.

"During his 18 years in the North Carolina House of Representatives, much of Representative Ramsey's biography has been written in the Journals of this House. His fingerprints appear on most of the major bills and Legislative innovations that have been enacted during these years.

"During his career as a Legislator, Liston has been chairman of many important committees, served on major Legislative commissions, and has been a member of the Advisory Budget Commission.

"The time is now at hand when the Speaker ought to be a Legislator from the Mountains. Never has there been a Speaker from Madison County, nor has there been a Speaker of the House from West of the Eastern Continental Divide in many, many years. It is time and timely that mountaineer Liston B. Ramsey be elected Speaker.

"But the selection of a Speaker should do more than honor a region or a person. The one nominated and elected ought to be qualified by tenure, training, and motivation to perform the duties of the office.

"We who represent the mountain counties are proud to present a candidate who has these qualifications.

"Liston Ramsey is qualified to be Speaker because he is a mountain man. Just as he learned to pursue a straight course over rugged mountain terrain, he can likewise cut a straight swath through the mountains of Governmental and Legislative red tape. He can see issues as they really are, even though they are presented to him tilted or even upside down. He is a man who despite obstacles can recognize the focal point of issues and problems.

"Liston is not running for higher office, nor does he want a governmental appointment. In fact, he believes the position of Speaker to be the highest office in state government. He will have no outside distractions. All his abilities and efforts, therefore, can be and will be directed toward being the best Speaker that he can possibly be.

"Liston Ramsey is a man of action rather than a man of many words; he had rather perform than talk.

"Liston Ramsey is a man who knows the Legislative process, who understands the issues, whose word is his bond. He does not speak with a forked tongue.

"He is a man who senses and responds to the will of the people.

"He can work in harmony with the Members of this House, the Senate, the Governor, and members of state agencies.

"Liston Ramsey is a man who can inspire and lead us, but who can drive us when driving is necessary.

"He will listen, sympathize, and give advice when these actions are proper; but he can also be stern when toughness is required.

"Liston Ramsey will be Speaker for all the Members of this House.

"Liston Ramsey will be Speaker for all the people of North Carolina.

"I have the high honor to place in nomination the name of the Honorable Liston Ramsey for Speaker of the 1981-83 House of Representatives."

The nomination is seconded by Representative Jo Graham Foster.

"It is indeed a joy for me to second the nomination of Liston Ramsey for Speaker of the House. Liston, the original — no blueprint, no carbon copy or no ditto of this man.

"Liston does not need flowery words to speak of his excellence or mortal tongues to tell of his influence. The political tones of this entire state have been changed by his priceless presence and his endless efforts. He is a man of principle, courage, conviction and has the ability to speak with a straight tongue.

"Liston's seat will not be an easy one. Written on the wall of a mid-western restaurant you will find these words, 'If you find your steak tough, get up and walk out quietly, this is no place for weaklings'. I do not believe you will find Liston tiptoeing out due to tough decisions.

"I believe before Liston daily mounts the steps to the Speaker's stand he will examine his own credibility, honesty, integrity, his ability to handle pressure, tension, disappointments and ability to make wise decisions. He shows personal courage in doubting times, dips worn hands into the vast sea of eternal values engraving upon human minds images that time cannot eradicate.

"Liston never watches the clock while there's work yet to be done. Others may leave at five o'clock, he will leave at 5:01. He will expect the same from us. Liston thinks that 'life is a just employer and gives just what you ask, but once you accept the responsibility then you must assume the task.' He will expect us to take seriously our responsibility.

"Liston will plant shade trees under which he will never sit or rest. He thinks everything and everybody is important and he knows that this Assembly will move forward not only by the shove of two or three but by the tiny push of everyone. He has the expertise and knowledge to analyze the needs of people and is willing to get involved.

"Walking along the seashore reminds me of Liston's resources —

'You can't see much of the ocean
Just a few miles beyond the sand shore
But out beyond that horizon
There is more — there is more.'

"Will you join me now not only with your affirmative vote but with your full support for Liston Ramsey, the next Speaker of the North Carolina House."

The nomination is also seconded by Representative Sam Bundy.

"LISTON RAMSEY

L	Stands for his Loyalty
I	Stands for his Integrity
S	Stands for his Straightforwardness
T	Stands for his Truthfulness
O	Stands for his Obligation
N	Stands for being so Natural
R	Stands for being so Refreshing
A	Stands for being so Approachable
M	Stands for the Man of the Hour
S	Stands for his Statesmanship
E	Stands for his Efficiency
Y	Stands for his Yeoman's Service, not only in this body but also for his district and his state."

The nomination is also seconded by Representative John Church.

"Mr. Secretary of State, fellow members of the North Carolina House, ladies and gentlemen. I am indeed proud and consider it a privilege to second the motion to elect Liston B. Ramsey as Speaker of the House for the 1981 Session. His length of service since 1961 has been broad. He has held many responsible positions with great dignity, thoroughness and dedication. He has always proven to be a man of integrity and willing to give a helping hand to all newcomers and has worked diligently throughout the many sessions with his cohorts. No one has a more thorough knowledge of the legislative process than our Speaker-elect Liston Ramsey. He is plain-spoken and his Democratic loyalty is as well known as that of Thad Eure, who is known historically as the oldest rat in the barn. You can rest assured that this session of the Legislature will be in good hands and that much will be accomplished under his wise leadership. I know of no one who is more qualified to assume the role of leadership as Speaker of the House than Liston B. Ramsey.

"It gives me great pleasure to ask for your support to second the motion to elect Liston B. Ramsey Speaker of the House."

The nomination is also seconded by Representative Tom Rabon.

"Mr. Secretary, Members of the House of Representatives, and honored guests from all over North Carolina. It is indeed a great pleasure to second the nomination of Liston Ramsey as Speaker of the House. Over the past two years I have had the opportunity to work closely with Liston Ramsey. I have found him to be a very capable and conscientious legislator. The accomplishments of his legislative career typify his genuine concern for the people of his district, but equally as important, his accomplishments typify his genuine concern for people all over North Carolina.

"I remember quite vividly the first time that I met Liston Ramsey. I had heard stories about his in-depth knowledge of parliamentary procedures as it relates to the operation of this House. I decided to ask him a question about a particular House rule under which we operate. Liston said, 'Tom, take that House Rules Book on your desk, turn to page 15, Rule 8, sentence 2, and I think it will say this.' And Liston Ramsey began to recite this particular rule verbatim.

"From that point on, Liston Ramsey's understanding of the legislative process has continually impressed me.

"I think that under the leadership of our next Speaker you will see a House of Representatives with equal opportunity for all of its members. I think that Liston Ramsey will be fair to all members of this body, whether we come from the Eastern, the Piedmont or the Western section of this great state.

"Liston Ramsey is not the kind of man who makes a lot of noise, but the bottom line is, he gets the job done. And as his legislative track record so clearly demonstrates he not only gets the job done — he does it well.

"So I hope that each of you will join me in supporting a man who I'm confident will do a good job at the helm of this House. Therefore Mr. Secretary, I respectfully second the motion of a truly great North Carolinian, Liston Ramsey as Speaker of the North Carolina House of Representatives."

The nomination is also seconded by Representative Allen Adams.

"Mr. Secretary, Members of the Judiciary, members of other branches of state government, and my fellow Members of the House of Representatives. On the Calendar today it is listed, at this point, the election of the Speaker. But I think that more appropriately, although this is the election, that this is a celebration of the culmination of a lifetime of devotion and extraordinary service to the people of North Carolina.

"When asked in a survey made of Members of this House some time ago of what their occupation was, or their profession, Liston Ramsey was the only one who listed 'politician.' And, what could be more apt? Let's see if he described himself accurately. I looked in Webster's dictionary and it had a great long definition of politician, and many different definitions. One of them was 'one versed in the art and science of government, one actively engaged in the business of government, one skilled and experienced in politics.' How could you better describe Liston Ramsey? Another definition was 'one addicted and actively engaged in party politics.'

"As Sam Rayburn described himself one time when asked if he were a liberal, moderate or conservative Democrat, Sam Rayburn replied, 'I am a Democrat without prefix, without suffix, and without apology.' And, how can you better describe Liston Ramsey? He is devoted to his party. He believes devoutly in its principles, and its record, and its people. To Liston Ramsey, party loyalty is a matter of honor and integrity.

"More important to us, and to the State of North Carolina, is Liston's devotion to this body, the House of Representatives, both as an institution and to you its Members. One of the members of the press came to me and asked me if I could tell him something about the next Speaker and he said he had heard that he was a closed-door, backroom type operator. And I said, 'I don't think anything could be further from the truth.' In 1975, it was Liston Ramsey who was responsible for the rule that said that in the discretion of the committee chairman we could have roll call votes in committee. And that didn't satisfy Liston. In 1977, he stood up on the Floor of this House and amended the rules to say that, upon a vote of 1/5 of the members of the committee, it was required that we would have a roll call vote. That is not the record of a closed-door, backroom politician. He believes in open government more than anyone I have ever known.

"Liston Ramsey believes in the worth and the value of each one of us, not for our own individual capabilities, but because he believes devoutly in the worth and value of the people of North Carolina who sent us here. He wants each of us to participate to the fullest in the course and direction of the welfare of the people of this State. I hope that we will not let him down, because I am sure he will never let us down.

"Mr. Secretary, I am delighted to second the nomination of Representative Liston Ramsey of Madison as Speaker of the North Carolina House of Representatives."

There being no further nominations, the Secretary of State declares the nominations closed and requests that the roll of the House be called. The following members vote for Representative Ramsey: Representatives Adams, Allran, Almond, Anderson, Barbee, Barker, Barnes, Beam, Beard, Bell, Black, Blue, Bone, Brawley, Brennan, Brown, Brubaker, Bumgardner, Bundy, Burnley, Chapin, Church, D. Clark, W. Clark, Coble, Cochrane, Colton, Cook, Craven, Crawford, Creecy, Diamont, Easterling, Economos, Edwards, Ellis, Enloe, Bob Etheridge, Bruce Ethridge, Evans, Fenner, Foster, Fulcher, Fussell, Gardner, Gay, Gillam, Grady, Greenwood, Guy, Hackney, Harrison, Haworth, Hayden, Hege, Helms, Hiatt, Hightower, Holmes, B. Holt, C. Holt, C. Hughes, J. Hughes, J. Hunt, P. Hunt, R. Hunter, T. Hunter, Huskins, Hux, James, Jones, Jordan, Kaplan, Keesee, Lacey, Lancaster, Ligon, Lilley, Locklear, Lutz, McAlister, McDowell, Mauney, Mavretic, Messer, Miller, Morgan, Musselwhite, Nash, Nesbitt, Nye, Parnell, Payne, Pegg, Plyler, Poovey, Pulley, Quinn, Rabon, Radford, Redding, Robinson, Seymour, Smith, Spaulding, Spoon, Stamey, Tally, Tennille, Thomas, Tison, Tyson, Warren, Watkins, Wicker, Woodard, and Wright.

Mr. Ramsey having received all the votes is declared Speaker of the 1981 House of Representatives.

The Speaker, escorted to the Chair by Representatives Jeff Enloe, Gordon Greenwood, Kenneth Spaulding, Margaret Tennille, Vernon James and David Parnell takes and subscribes to the following oath of office administered by the Honorable Lacy Thornburg, Judge of the 30th Judicial District.

"I, Liston B. Ramsey, do solemnly swear that I will support the Constitution and laws of the United States; and,

"I do solemnly and sincerely swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to the State of North Carolina, and to the constitutional powers and authorities which are or may be established for the government thereof; and that I will endeavor to support, maintain, and defend the Constitution of said State, not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States; to the best of my knowledge and ability; and,

"I do solemnly swear that I will well and truly execute the duties of the office of Speaker of the 1981 House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina to the best of my skill and ability, according to laws; so help me, God."

The Speaker, Mr. Ramsey, approaches the dias and makes the following remarks:

"Mr. Secretary of State, Justices of the Supreme Court, Judges of the Court of Appeals, members of the Council of State, fellow Members of the House, my family and friends, ladies and gentlemen.

As a boy my parents often told me that much was given to me and much was expected of me.

"No words could better describe the situation in which I now find myself.

"By my election as Speaker of this House, much has been given to me.

"I will be grateful for the rest of my days.

"By my acceptance of the office and assumption of its duties, much is expected of me.

"I will do my very best.

"Thirty-six years ago a lowly man from Missouri, Harry Truman, assumed a burden far heavier than the one I now assume.

"The words he spoke on that occasion match my sentiments today:

'I ask only to be a good and faithful servant of my Lord and my people.'

"In the galleries today are a good number of my people — my friends and constituents from the 44th House District and throughout the West — among this group are my wife, Florence, and my daughter, Martha, and other members of my immediate family — and I am delighted that they are here.

"Elsewhere in the galleries and across this Floor are many more of my people, and it is good to be with them.

"But the vast majority of my people are not present in this hall.

"They are out there in their homes, schools, offices and work places.

"For when I speak of 'my people' I mean all of the 5,800,000 inhabitants of North Carolina, the dearest spot on earth.

"I exclude no one —

"Not the 880,000 who live below the poverty level,

"Not the 180,000 who are out of work,

"Not the 64,000 who are crippled, the 58,000 who are blind, the 57,000 who are deaf, the 500,000 elderly.

"These are also your people.

"Every citizen, whether his personal circumstances be favorable or unfavorable, deserves our attention and by right ought to have it.

"Section 12 of Article 1 known as the Declaration of Rights of our State Constitution reads as follows:

"The people have a right to assemble together to consult for their common good, to instruct their representatives, and to apply to the General Assembly for redress of grievances —.

"Members of the House, the people are our reason for being here.

"They have placed their trust in us, and we are called upon at this hour to give back to them the best that is in us to give.

"Every North Carolinian has a right to health care which is effective, readily available and affordable.

"Every North Carolinian has a right to personal safety and a sound and fair system of law and justice.

"Every North Carolinian has a right to a clean and wholesome environment and a supply of energy that is adequate to the essential needs of our time.

"Every North Carolinian has a right to mobility, to a reliable system of transportation to move goods and people about.

"Every North Carolinian has a right to decent treatment when they are young, dignity when they are old, and opportunity throughout their lives.

"The agenda of human needs is indeed lengthy, but it seems to me that when all is said and done the fundamental responsibility of government is threefold:

"One, to provide the opportunity for a person to get all the education he wants and can use.

"Two, to provide the opportunity for a person to obtain the means of feeding and sustaining himself and his family.

"And three, to provide a government that is efficient and economical and which taxes the assets of a person at the barest possible minimum.

"In short, this General Assembly should direct its efforts toward eliminating empty minds, empty stomachs and empty pockets.

"We cannot offer the people the certainty of success but we can offer them the certainty that we will work hard to achieve success.

"Here and across much of America, many people seem to have doubts —

"Doubts that their government will listen to them,

"Doubts that their government understands their needs and desires,

"Doubts that their government can do what it says it will do,

"Doubts that their government knows how to spend money wisely.

"We will show them.

"We will show them that here is one government designed to serve people and not bleed them.

"It will not be easy to meet our budgetary responsibilities. An economic chill is spreading across us and there are no signs of a warming trend.

"The resources available to this General Assembly to fund new programs and improved services during the coming biennium will be limited.

"We will have only so many dollars and no more. There will not be enough to satisfy the appetites of all, however worthy.

"Our job will be to put first things first, get our priorities in order, eliminate any semblance of waste, and terminate any programs that may be found to be unwise, unwanted and unused.

"Every agency paid by the public should have no objection to a single over-riding test: Are you fulfilling a clearly demonstrated need? Are you worth the investment being made in you by those who send their tax dollars to Raleigh?

"I would caution the members of this body to pay close attention to budgetary cutbacks on the federal level that may have the effect of increasing our own budgetary obligations.

"The federal government lately has shown a disposition to terminate or cut back its financial support of various programs, leaving the states to pick up the funding. From all indications, this trend will accelerate under the incoming new administration in Washington.

"I urge you to be extremely careful about agreeing to pick up and attempt to fund programs which the federal government may see fit to abandon or reduce. To do so could cut sharply into our limited resources.

"North Carolina stands today at a budgetary crossroad. Unless we choose the path of the wisest possible use of our dollars, we will be heading for financial trouble in the very near future.

"We simply do not have the money in the General Fund to increase the number of people in every state agency. And we are limited in what we can do in terms of starting up new programs or expanding existing ones.

"Fiscal responsibility must be our watchword at all times, especially at this time.

"As we begin a session that in all likelihood will run until the latter part of June, I am confident we will be equal to each and every challenge that comes our way.

"Furthermore, I believe that in due time and in a proper manner we will come to the right decisions — not the easy decisions, but the right ones.

"I am confident, also, that in the final analysis those decisions will meet with the approval of the people of North Carolina.

"We will find as we go along that the things that now appear to us as problems are merely opportunities — opportunities to be seized and turned to our best advantage.

"I look forward to serving as presiding officer of the North Carolina House of Representatives, as fine an organization as can be found in any of the 50 states. Every day that dawns, my affection for this Body increases.

"And so we now begin our venture.

"When it is over and done with, I hope we will leave behind us a record worthy of the talents that each of us possesses.

"I accept the office of Speaker not as a personal tribute, but as a grave responsibility. I ask for your help, for I know that I will need it.

"Again, I extend my sincere appreciation for the confidence and trust you have placed in me."

The Speaker assumes the duties of the Chair.

On motion of Representative John J. Hunt, the rules of the House of Representatives for 1979, with the following amendment, are adopted as temporary rules for the 1981 House of Representatives:

On motion of Representative J. Hunt, seconded by Representative Foster, the House adjourns to reconvene January 15, 1981 at 1:00 p.m.

SECOND DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, January 15, 1981

The House meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Speaker.

Prayer is offered by Dr. Albert G. Edwards, House Chaplain.

Representative J. Hunt, for the Committee on Rules and Operation of the House, reports the Journal of January 14 has been examined and found correct. Upon his motion, the Journal is approved as written.

A leave of absence is granted Representative Taylor for today.

The speaker announces that the following oath of office was administered today to Mr. S. Thomas Rhodes of the 12th District by the Honorable Thad Eure, Secretary of State.

"I, Samuel Thomas Rhodes, do solemnly swear that I will support the Constitution and laws of the United States; and,

I do solemnly and sincerely swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to the State of North Carolina, and to the constitutional powers and authorities which are or may be established for the government thereof; and that I will endeavor to support, maintain, and defend the Constitution of said State, not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States; to the best of my knowledge and ability; and,

I do solemnly swear that I will faithfully discharge my duties as a Member of the 1981 House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina to the best of my skill and ability; so help me, God."

The Speaker makes the following announcement concerning the death of Representative Jack M. Gardner.

"We convene today on a note of profound sadness over the sudden loss of one of our fellow members, the Honorable J. M. (Jack) Gardner of the 14th House District.

"His untimely death yesterday, only a few short hours after taking the oath of office, came as a shock to his many friends and associates.

"His passing is a loss not only to Johnston and Franklin Counties, which he represented so well and faithfully, but also to the entire State of North Carolina.

"Jack Gardner was a great and good man.

"We will miss him.

"We extend to his family our deep and heart-felt sympathy.

"The Chair would like to appoint as Official Representatives of the House at the funeral the following members:

"Representative John M. Radford of Johnston, his colleague in the 14th District;

"The Members of the Wake County Delegation — Representatives Adams, Blue, Cook, Fussell, Musselwhite, and Woodard;

"The Members of the 7th House District comprising Nash, Edgecombe and Wilson Counties — Representatives Barbee, Bone, Fenner, and Mavretic;

"The Gentleman from Lenoir, Mr. Lilley;

"And, the Gentleman from Cumberland, Mr. Holt.

"Funeral arrangements are incomplete at this time. Hopefully, we will be able to give you the details tomorrow."

"I Don't Want To Call Any Names, But..."
by Marie Colton, with apologies to the FRYE in the sky.

"Out in the HUSKINS the people NASH their teeth and mutter in their BEARD
This makes them REDDING the face.
We are all CHAPIN at the bit.

"The HUX of the MESSER is: which is the WRIGHT PEGG to PULLEY for better RHODES and other HACKNEY matters.

"There is not a TALLY of every HOLT but we are BLACK and BLUE from the PAYNE.
It is a constant BONE of contention as there are too many MAVRETICS trying to FOYLE our plans.

"Is there a BEAM of hope?

"The HUNT is on.

It would take more than one DIAMONT.
We can't SEYMOUR BARNES and we dare not build a single new HIGHTOWER as the ECONOMOS WARREN that we could COOK our goose.
It could FOSTER a FUSSELL, maybe even a BRAWLEY.

"But will the GUY at the HELMS LISTON?

"Oh, how we are CRAVEN
a GAY time back in our HOLMES
NYE the GREENWOOD tree.
We LONG to hear music of sweet LUTZ and to eat an ALMOND from a silver SPOON.
Instead the BUMGARDNER brings CREECY greens in a WICKER basket.

"We must ring the BELL on the problem before EASTERLING, or the LILLEY will turn BROWN and CHURCH will be out.

"And this is no BUNCOMBE!"

SEVENTEENTH DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, February 5, 1981

The House meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Speaker.

Prayer is offered by Dr. Albert G. Edwards, House Chaplain.

Representative J. Hunt, for the Committee on Rules and Operation of the House, reports the Journal of February 4 has been examined and found correct. Upon his motion, the Journal is approved as written.

Leaves of absence are granted Representatives Bumgardner, Foster, Miller, and Plyler for today.

Representative Barbee rises on a point of personal privilege to read a letter from Secretary of State Thad Eure to Representative Dwight Quinn. On motion of Representative Barbee, this letter is recorded in the Journal as follows:

February 5, 1981

Honorable Dwight W. Quinn
Seat Number 7
Legislative Building
Raleigh, North Carolina 27611

Dear Mr. Quinn:

Records in this office disclose that you have established a record in serving uninterrupted continuous years beginning in 1951, as a member of either branch of the General Assembly. You are now serving your sixteenth two-year term in the House, when completed will cover a span of thirty-two years.

Joseph Riddick of Gates County served for a span of thirty-six years beginning in 1781, four in the House and twenty-nine in the Senate, all were one-year terms. His twenty-nine one-year terms in the Senate were continuous. Your continuous service in the House exceeds the previous record of Joseph Riddick's service in the Senate.

I extend to you my congratulations and best wishes for your continued service as a member of the General Assembly.

Sincerely,
S/ THAD EURE
Secretary of State

CONFERENCE REPORT

June 16, 1981

TO: THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE AND
THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

We, your conferees, appointed to resolve the differences arising between the Senate and the House of Representatives on H. B. 73, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO AMEND G. S. 50-13.4 TO MAKE THE FATHER AND THE MOTHER PRIMARILY LIABLE FOR SUPPORT, wish to report as follows:

1. That the Senate and House agree to amend the bill by rewriting Section 4 as follows:

Section 4. There is added to Chapter 110 of the General Statutes a new section as follows:

110-138.1. Duty of Judicial Officials to Assist in Support. Any party to whom child support has been ordered to be paid, and who has failed to receive the ordered support payments for two consecutive months, may make application to a magistrate for issuance of criminal process against the responsible parent for violation of G. S. 14-322. If the magistrate determines that the applicant has failed to receive the ordered support for two consecutive months, and that the responsible parent has willfully neglected or refused to make such payments, he shall make a finding of probable cause and issue criminal process for violation of G. S. 14-322. It shall be the duty of the District Attorney to prosecute such charges according to law. It shall be the duty of the Clerk of Superior Court to assist the applicant in making such application to the magistrate for the issuance of criminal process, and to supply such necessary child support records as are in his possession to the magistrate, District Attorney, and the Court.

2. That the House concur in the Senate Committee Substitute adopted 5/14/81, (fourth edition engrossed 5/26/81), except as indicated in paragraph #1 above.

To this end, the conferees recommend that the Senate and House of Representatives adopt the foregoing report.

This the 16th day of June, 1981.

"(57) to conform the effective date sections to the deletion of Section 7 and renumbering of sections by subdivision (54) of this amendment, amend the bill on page 28, line 20, by changing '8' to '7' and changing '34' to '33'; and on page 28, line 21, by inserting the phrase '16, 17, and' after the word 'Sections' and deleting the phrase 'and 19'; and on page 28, line 22, by changing '33' to '32'."

4. The House agrees to recede from Amendment #7 (Church) and the House and Senate agree to substitute the following amendment in its place:

"Amend the bill on page 12, line 12, by deleting section 8 (renumbered Section 7 by amendment #1) of the bill in its entirety and by renumbering the remaining sections of the bill, and the references in the effective date sections, accordingly.

And further amend the bill on page 12, line 24, through page 13, line 17, by rewriting Section 9 of the bill, (renumbered as Section 8 by amendment #1), to read as follows:

'Article 5 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section following G. S. 105-164.44 to be designated G. S. 105-164.44A and to read:

"§ 105-164.44A. Tax on motor vehicle parts, accessories, and lubricants; transfer to Highway Fund. — The sales and use tax collected on motor vehicle parts, accessories and lubricants for the fiscal year 1980-81 is estimated to be fifty-nine million dollars ($59,000,000), which amount may be used hereafter to determine the amount of sales and use taxes to be transferred under this section from the General Fund to the Highway Fund.

Sales and use taxes collected on motor vehicle parts, accessories and lubricants may be transferred from the General Fund to the Highway Fund in the following amounts and in the following manner:

(1) On a quarterly basis during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1982, the State Treasurer shall transfer from the General Fund to the Highway Fund that portion of the sum of fifty-nine million dollars ($59,000,000) which equals the estimated amount of new General Fund revenues enacted during the 1981-82 legislative session, not to exceed fifty-nine million dollars ($59,000,000).

(2) On a quarterly basis during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1983, the State Treasurer shall transfer from the General Fund to the Highway Fund that portion of the sum of fifty-nine million dollars ($59,000,000) which equals the annualized amount transferred during the year ending June 30, 1982, plus any annualized estimated new revenues enacted by the 1981-82 legislative session and not previously transferred, plus or minus the percentage of this amount by which the total collections of sales and use tax increased or decreased over the previous year.

(3) On a quarterly basis during each fiscal year beginning on or after July 1, 1983, the State Treasurer shall transfer from the General Fund to the Highway Fund the amount transferred during the year ending June 30, 1983, plus or minus the percentage of that amount by which the total collection of sales or use tax increased or decreased over the previous year.

(4) The quarterly transfers shall be made within thirty (30) days after the end of each quarter." ' "

To this end, the conferees recommend that the Senate and House of Representatives adopt the foregoing report.

This the 24th day of June, 1981.

CONFERENCE REPORT

June 29, 1981

TO: THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE AND THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

We, your conferees, appointed to resolve the differences arising between the Senate and the House of Representatives on the House Committee Substitute adopted May 14, 1981, to S. B. 24, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT FOR EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION OF MARITAL PROPERTY, wish to report as follows:

the Senate adopt the House Committee Substitute adopted by the House on May 14, 1981 to the Senate Bill;

and the House and Senate adopt the following amendments to that Committee Substitute:

on Page 2, lines 6 through 8, by deleting the words "unless the property has been placed in joint ownership by one or both of the parties" and substituting in lieu thereof the words "regardless of whether the title is in the name of the husband or wife or both";

and on page 3, lines 12 through 14, by rewriting subdivision (5) to read:

"(5) vested pension or retirement rights and the expectation of nonvested pension or retirement rights, which are separate property;"

and on page 7, lines 22 through 25, by deleting the sentence beginning with the words "A trial" and substituting in lieu thereof the following sentence:

"Nothing in G. S. 50-20 or this section shall restrict or extend the right to trial by jury as provided by the Constitution of North Carolina."; and on page 7, line 26, by adding a new sentence after the period to read:

"Real or personal property located outside of North Carolina is subject to equitable distribution in accordance with the provisions of G. S. 50-20 and the court may include in its order appropriate provisions to insure compliance with the order of equitable distribution."; and on page 7, line 27, and page 8, lines 1 and 2, by rewriting Section 7 to read:

"This act shall become effective October 1, 1981, and shall apply only when an absolute divorce is granted on or after that date."

To this end, the conferees recommend that the Senate and House of Representatives adopt the foregoing report.

This the 29th day of June, 1981.

Representative Adams sends forth the following Conference Report and moves its adoption.

CONFERENCE REPORT

June 29, 1981

TO: THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE AND
THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

We, your conferees, appointed to resolve the differences arising between the Senate and the House of Representatives on H. B. 169, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT WHEN VACANCIES OCCUR IN THE OFFICES OF COUNTY COMMISSIONER, SHERIFF, REGISTER OF DEEDS, CORONER, OR PARTISAN SCHOOL BOARD RACES, THE APPOINTING BOARD OR PERSON MUST APPOINT THE PERSON RECOMMENDED BY THE POLITICAL PARTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OR THE VACATING OFFICER, AND BY REQUIRING A DISTRICT BAR TO NOMINATE CANDIDATES FOR DISTRICT COURT JUDGES OF THE SAME PARTY OF THE VACATING JUDGE, wish to report as follows:

The Senate recedes from its Amendment #4 and inserts the following revised amendment in its place:

"amend the bill on page 7, line 23 by deleting the words: 'Ashe, Avery,'; further amend the bill on page 8 line 1 by deleting the word: 'Surry,'; further amend the bill on page 8 line 2 by deleting the words: 'Watauga, Wilkes, Yadkin,'."

and the House agrees with the same.

the House recedes from its non-concurrence in Senate Amendment #3 and concurs in the same.

To this end, the conferees recommend that the Senate and House of Representatives adopt the foregoing report.

This the 29th day of June, 1981.

Representative Evans sends forth the following Conference Report and moves its adoption.

CONFERENCE REPORT

June 29, 1981

TO: THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE AND
THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

We, your conferees, appointed to resolve the differences arising between the Senate and the House of Representatives on S. B. 50, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO PLACE THE PHRASE "FIRST IN FLIGHT" AND A REPRESENTATION OF THE WRIGHT BROTHERS' AIRPLANE ON REGISTRATION PLATES, wish to report as follows:

The House recedes from Amendment #1 and the conferees recommend that the bill be changed on page 1, line 7, by deleting the word "Every" and adding in lieu thereof the following: "Subject to the provisions hereof every private passenger vehicle and all private hauler vehicles licensed for 4000 pounds gross weight"; and

Further recommends on page 1, line 8, before the figure "1982" by adding the following: "January 1"; and Further recommends on page 1, line 12 after the "period" by adding the following: "The Department shall deplete the license plates in stock, on order, or for which a contract has been signed at the time of the ratification of this bill. Until all of the license plates previously referred to have been depleted, all plates issued to replace faded, worn-out or damaged plates shall be regular plates. Any person desiring to trade in a regular plate and thereby secure a First in Flight plate may do so by paying the fee provided in G. S. 20-85(5). As soon as feasible, but not later than July 1, 1983, all newly issued plates shall be issued as First in Flight plates; and as soon as feasible, but not later than January 1, 1984, all Special Issue, official and personalized plates shall be issued as First in Flight plates. Beginning July 1, 1983, the Department shall, as the same comes up for renewal, begin systematically replacing all regular license plates with First in Flight license plates beginning with the oldest series of existing plates and continuing thereafter on a staggered basis.

To this end, the conferees recommend that the Senate and House of Representatives adopt the foregoing report.

This the 29th day of June, 1981.

CONFERENCE REPORT NO. 2

July 2, 1981

TO: THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE AND THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

We, your conferees, appointed to resolve the differences arising between the Senate and the House of Representatives on the House Committee Substitute adopted May 14, 1981, to S. B. 24, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT FOR EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION OF MARITAL PROPERTY, wish to report as follows:

the Senate adopt the House Committee Substitute adopted by the House on May 14, 1981 to the Senate Bill:

and the House and Senate adopt the following amendments to that Committee Substitute:

on page 2, lines 6 through 8, by deleting the words "unless the property has been placed in joint ownership by one or both of the parties" and substituting in lieu thereof the words "regardless of whether the title is in the name of the husband or wife or both";

and on page 3, lines 12 through 14, by rewriting subdivision (5) to read:

"(5) vested pension or retirement rights and the expectation of nonvested pension or retirement rights, which are separate property;"

and on page 7, lines 22 through 25, by deleting the sentence beginning with the words "A trial" and substituting in lieu thereof the following sentence;

"Nothing in G. S. 50-20 or this section shall restrict or extend the right to trial by jury as provided by the Constitution of North Carolina."; and on page 7, line 26, by adding a new sentence after the period to read:

"Real or personal property located outside of North Carolina is subject to equitable distribution in accordance with the provisions of G. S. 50-20 and the court may include in its order appropriate provisions to insure compliance with the order of equitable distribution."; and on page 7, line 27, and page 8, lines 1 and 2, by rewriting Section 7 to read:

"This act shall become effective October 1, 1981, and shall apply only when the action for an absolute divorce is filed on or after that date."

and on page 6, line 14, and on page 6, line 22, by deleting the words "one year" and substituting in lieu thereof the words "six months".

To this end, the conferees recommend that the Senate and House of Representatives adopt the foregoing report.

This the 2nd day of July, 1981.

CONFERENCE REPORT

July 3, 1981

TO: THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE AND
THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

We, your conferees, appointed to resolve the differences arising between the Senate and the House of Representatives on Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for H. B. 319, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE BOARDS OF ELECTIONS TO HOLD EXECUTIVE SESSIONS AFTER PUBLIC HEARINGS, wish to report as follows:

We recommend that Section 1 be rewritten to read:

"Section 1. G. S. 143-318.11(a) is amended by adding a new subsection at the end to read:

'(19) To plan investigations and receive investigative reports requested by a board of elections concerning election frauds, irregularities, election contests, or violations of the election laws. Following a public hearing during which it is alleged or apparent that any election official may have committed an act of misconduct, a board of elections may meet in executive session to deliberate, adjudicate, and reach its decision on whether further action shall be ordered or whether no further action shall be ordered against any election official. Each member's vote on the decision shall be a matter of public record.' "

To this end, the conferees recommend that the Senate and House of Representatives adopt the foregoing report.

This the 3rd day of July, 1981.

APPENDIX

STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS TO THE NORTH CAROLINA GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN JOINT SESSION BY GOVERNOR JAMES B. HUNT, JR.

STATE OF THE ECONOMY

I believe we should begin our deliberations with this question: What can we do this year—as Governor and as members of the General Assembly—to help North Carolinians in a time of economic hardship?

Our nation faces its most serious economic problems since the Depression 50 years ago: sluggish growth, high inflation, high interest rates and high unemployment.

North Carolinians have suffered with the nation. We also have persistent economic handicaps: low per capita income, too much poverty and not enough good jobs.

Let us pledge tonight that we will overcome them.

Let us pledge that our agenda this year will be to open the doors of economic opportunity to all North Carolinians.

Let us pledge to make it possible for all North Carolinians to earn a good living and provide adequately for their families.

Let us also count North Carolina's blessings.

In the 1970s, the average pay of our people increased at a rate seventh-highest among all the states.

In the last four years, we have enjoyed unprecedented economic growth. Industries have decided to invest $8.1 billion in new and expanded plants—more than in the previous 11 years combined. That is an achievement North Carolina can be proud of.

Despite the national recession, 1980 saw North Carolina reach the second-highest level of industrial investment ever—$2.24 billion, second only to the $2.4 billion recorded in 1979. That is an achievement North Carolina can be proud of.

And that investment over the last four years will bring North Carolina more than 122,000 new manufacturing jobs. That is an achievement North Carolina can be proud of.

So we have a strong foundation on which to build.

Now we need a strategy for strengthening our people and overcoming our human handicaps.

We need a strategy for economic development and for human development.

And we need to recognize that the full development of our people is essential to the development of our economy.

Human development means infant health care and child day care. It means education and skill training. It means a good job and a good retirement. It means full and equal opportunities for everyone.

Economic development means more than just convincing industries to come to North Carolina. It means good roads and public transit and ports and airports. It means a good energy supply. It means safely disposing of hazardous wastes. It means protecting the air, the land and the water that God has given us.

Let us commit ourselves to a strategy that will develop the full potential of our people and unlock the full potential of our economy.

Let us commit ourselves to making North Carolina all that it can be and ought to be.

RESPONSIBLE GOVERNMENT

But as we do so, let us remember this:

We must be responsible with the taxpayers' money. We must make wise investments that will yield better jobs and better education and a better future.

We must be conservative and progressive.

We must cut out the fat, but build the muscle.

We have kept state government on a strict diet.

The number of state jobs has increased only 10 percent the last four years, while it grew 20 percent the previous four years. This year, the growth in state jobs is the smallest in more than a decade—0.8 percent.

But we can do something in the coming budget year that hasn't been done in a long time—if ever. We can actually reduce the number of state employees. You will do that if you approve this budget.

I recommend that we eliminate 1,002 jobs from the state payroll. That can save the taxpayers $13 million in salaries. It will shrink the size of state government by almost 2 percent.

If you do that, it will mean that, over the last four years, we will have abolished almost 2,200 jobs—almost 1,000 of them in the Department of Transportation.

The rest of the nation is just now waking up to the wisdom of restricted government growth and responsible taxation. That has been the North Carolina way for decades.

We have had no state tax increases in the last eight years. For this year, dependent exemptions have been increased by $200 each. Standard deductions and personal exemptions have been raised 10 percent. This General Assembly can be proud of that.

We rank 46th among the 50 states in our combined state and local taxes. We pay $711 per person per year, while the national average is $934. The difference is $223 per person in North Carolina.

In keeping with that tradition of responsible taxation, we should consider tax relief carefully targeted to help those hit hardest by inflation—families with children and the elderly.

I recommend the elimination retroactively of the early filing deadline that cost many elderly people their homestead exemption on property taxes last year. I also support raising the income limit and exemption amounts to reflect inflation. But the state should reimburse the counties and cities for any loss in tax revenues.

I also recommend helping low and middle-income working parents by providing a child care tax credit, instead of the present deduction.

We should recognize the burden that property taxes put on our citizens and the restrictions they place on local governments. Those governments have made great progress in their strength and effectiveness.

The budget I am presenting to you would provide new and continued assistance of $14 million to local governments for Medicaid, health and social services costs.

This legislature might also properly examine the long-run financial needs of local governments as compared to their revenues from present tax sources.

We must be fair to the fine employees who work for state government. This budget provides $106 million for their salary increases. I urge the legislature to look at various ways to pay this, but I hope you will especially consider maximizing take-home pay to teachers and state employees by having the state pick up five percent of the six percent retirement contribution made by state employees. This would permit an average increase in take-home pay of about seven percent.

I recommend that retired employees get the same increase in their benefits as the active workers get. That principle of equity should now be firmly established for the future. In addition, oversights in the retirees' benefits that were enacted by the last legislature should be corrected this year.

HIGH-TECHNOLOGY STRATEGY

The very leanness of the budget forces us to clarify our strategy for economic growth and to establish clear priorities.

I believe we should seek a future as a high-technology state. We should emphasize productivity, ideas and innovation.

We should target high-wage, high-growth industries like microelectronics. One micro-circuit smaller than your fingernail can process huge amounts of information that once required computers the size of this hall. These tiny "chips" will be the crude oil of the 1980s.

This is the Information Revolution, and it has hit the world with the impact of a second Industrial Revolution.

We can ride that wave to build a more prosperous economy and become a more productive state.

Microelectronics isn't the only industry in our future. Thanks to our universities and research institutions, North Carolina can pioneer in molecular biology, photovoltaics and other sophisticated technologies.

We are attractive to those industries. Look at General Electric's decision to locate its major new microelectronics research and development facility in North Carolina after looking at many other states.

This week, we read where the governor of California is worried by our competition for that industry. Well, let's give the Governor of California something to really worry about.

Let us resolve that no state will be more innovative and aggressive than North Carolina in pursuing this good growth.

Let us boldly commit ourselves to making North Carolina the East Coast center for this industry.

I am asking this legislature to commit $24.4 million over the coming biennium to develop the Microelectronics Center of North Carolina.

The Center is a unique partnership of government, education and industry. It will tie together the scientific and research resources of five great universities—N.C. State University, the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Duke University, North Carolina A&T State University and the University of North Carolina at Charlotte—as well as our community college system and the Research Triangle Institute.

It will train the minds and the skilled hands that are the lifeblood of this industry.

It can be the magnet that will attract microelectronics-related industries and good jobs to all parts of North Carolina—from the mountains to the coast.

This high-technology future can further our goal of balanced growth. We are committed to that principle in law.

Venture capital and utility services are needed throughout North Carolina to help bring good jobs to where the people are. Small businesses and minority-owned firms stand to benefit from this balance.

HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

Meeting the goal of a productive, high-technology state requires the full development of our people.

We must begin by raising up healthy, well-educated children who will grow up able to hold high-technology jobs.

We cannot afford to do otherwise. It costs us as taxpayers $36,000 per year for a mentally retarded child at Western Carolina Center. It costs us $38,000 for a mentally ill patient at Dorothea Dix. It costs us $31,000 for a juvenile at C.A. Dillon School.

Every year, 26,000 teenagers give birth in North Carolina. Half of their babies are illegitimate; many are retarded or handicapped.

It is a shame that North Carolina ranks fourth highest among the states in the number of babies that die before their first birthday, and we must change that.

We have made a good beginning these last four years. We have provided better infant and maternal health care. Hospitals are screening babies at birth, and doctors and nurses are following up with those who have defects and diseases.

Now, we must mobilize all our resources to save the children.

For them, we must expand our infant and child health programs.

As they grow older, we should continue to put state money into private day care. This General Assembly took that bold step in 1979.

And the state should do more to help those of all ages who need help.

For the mentally ill, I ask you to provide a $2 million reserve to improve community treatment.

For the mentally retarded, I ask you to provide more money for group homes.

For the severely and profoundly retarded, I ask you to provide additional specialized treatment.

For those who suffer from alcoholism and drug abuse, I ask you to provide more community treatment and prevention programs.

For older adults, I ask you to provide more assistance for senior citizen centers.

And for all of us and for our future, I ask you to make the same commitment to education that Charles Brantley Aycock made in his Inaugural Address in 1901 when he said:

"I pledge the state, its strength, its heart, its wealth, to universal education. . . I pledge the wealth of the state to the education of its children."

North Carolina has made great strides in its public schools the last four years. Our teachers, principals, superintendents and all educators deserve tremendous credit. We are focusing on the basic skills and developing competency for life.

For years, North Carolina has been way down in the national education scores. But now, for the first time ever, our students in grades one through six have scored at or above the national average in reading, language, spelling and math.

Our students' SAT scores are up, while they are dropping in other parts of the nation.

Our minimum competency test has had a powerful impact throughout the school system. The passing rate has increased each year it has been given. The greatest gains have been made by black and Indian students.

I appeal tonight to two groups in particular.

First, our teachers. They have the toughest and most important jobs in our state, and this General Assembly recognized that last year by enacting a fairer salary schedule for them. I appeal to our teachers to commit themselves to nurturing every young mind in their classes and to making our public schools the best in the nation.

I appeal to you, the members of this House and this Senate, to make the wise investments that will mean true excellence in education.

This year, let us begin a new quest in education.

Today, one out of every three teenagers drops out of school before graduating. That is a tragic waste that North Carolina cannot afford.

Let us commit ourselves in this General Assembly to perhaps the biggest and most important goal we have ever set: to help every child in North Carolina graduate from high school.

We should build on our proven kindergarten and Primary Reading programs. They have produced those exceptional test results.

I urge you to appropriate the money needed to reduce class sizes in grades four through six from one teacher for every 30 students to one teacher for 26.

We should put the same emphasis on individual help for students in the basic subjects—reading, language arts and math—in grades seven through twelve. Our goal here should be to reduce class size to one teacher per 25 students. Because of the tight budget, I can only move halfway toward that goal in the coming biennium. But we must make that full commitment in our hearts.

In addition to reducing class size, our program to reduce dropouts includes additional remedial instruction, vocational guidance counseling and a greater emphasis on teaching writing throughout the school grades.

But our schools and our students need more than tax dollars. My goal during the next four years will be to get more people helping to make their schools excellent. We will work to get every single school "adopted" by a church or organization that will provide volunteers and support. And we will expand the Community School program to every local school system, opening the doors of the schoolhouses to the community.

The preparation of our young people for careers in high technology will require a greater emphasis on math and science. Our North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics has focused national attention on our state, and I urge you to approve the items in this budget for operations and major renovations of its buildings.

To achieve a productive state, education and skill training must go hand-in-hand. Our goal must be to develop in each citizen the job skills necessary to get a good job and provide a good living for his or her family.

Over the last 20 years, this legislature has provided the funds for building one of the finest community college systems in the country. Today, that system has strong, new leadership and its own governing board composed heavily of industry leaders. I ask you to give it the tools and support it needs to do its job. And its primary job is to train people to work.

This budget provides $18 million for better training equipment and programs in our 58 institutions.

In addition, we need a comprehensive state policy on skill training. I promise you that as Chief Executive of this state we will soon develop a policy to use more efficiently the training funds available in our community college system, the public schools, the university, the Employment Security Commission, and, most important, private industry. All of these parts must work together to train the hands that run the wheels of industry and agriculture.

The high technology future we seek in North Carolina will come about only as we maintain and build our great university system.

It is more than just an educational enterprise. The University of North Carolina and all of its campuses are the major attraction for scientists, engineers, medical researchers and other top people in their economic fields.

The University system is part and parcel of our microelectronics development now under way and our efforts to develop new energy sources. I urge you to give it your loyalty and strong support.

I also remind you of the superb private colleges and universities in our state and their heroic battle to provide resources for their special educational functions. Because of limited revenues, this budget increases our per-student allocation by only $50 each year, and that is not adequate for their needs. I will be pleased if this amount can be increased.

We must also nurture and develop our cultural resources. We should give all our people a chance to experience the richness and fullness of music, art, drama and literature. We must take them to the people.

North Carolina's business community has been generous in its support of our cultural activities. Corporate contributions to those purposes totaled $7.4 million in 1979. Volunteers have given countless hours. State government owes it to our people to make the same level of commitment and dedication.

All of this—health care, day care, education, our cultural resources—is part of our human development strategy.

But it will be in vain if we do not open the doors for full participation in our society by all of our citizens. Let us make that commitment today—the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

We must not tolerate discrimination in our state—against blacks or Indians, women, the mentally retarded or mentally ill, the elderly or the handicapped.

I ask this General Assembly to join me in actively searching out and putting a stop to discrimination and, further, to affirmatively offering full and equal opportunities to everyone.

As the father of three daughters and a son and as Governor, I continue to believe that the Equal Rights Amendment to the United States Constitution is morally right and that we ought to ratify it.

We must also provide justice to the one-half of our population that is female by correcting unfair state laws. It is high time that wives in North Carolina—who work as equal partners on farms, in businesses, and in the home—be treated equitably in the distribution of marital property. They helped earn it, and they should share in it fairly.

We cannot expect people to believe in and support our free enterprise system unless they have a fair chance to get into it and progress on their merit. Therefore, I will support enactment of a Fair Employment Bill to give state government the authority to resolve complaints of hiring discrimination.

We must guarantee that our system of justice is fair to minorities. When I deliver my Special Message on Crime to this General Assembly, I will ask you to pass legislation designed to provide fair representation of minorities on jury lists.

I will also speak to a number of issues relating to one of the most important of all freedoms—the freedom from crime and physical violence. I will especially emphasize the importance of helping young people avoid being drawn into a life of crime.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Just as we have a strategy for human development, we must also have a strategy for economic development.

It may be tempting to look at the record of the last four years and want to relax. But North Carolina can't do that. We have too far to go. And the competition is too fierce. North Carolina will fall behind in the race for better jobs if we don't build the muscles that keep us competitive.

A healthy economy requires energy. North Carolina can lead the nation in developing and using alternative sources of energy. We must make that commitment.

Because of the action by this General Assembly, our state has one of the most effective systems of utility regulation in the nation. Our Utilities Commission and the Public Staff have kept the increase in electric rates below the inflation rate the last four years. Both Duke and Carolina Power & Light provide power at a cost lower than most utilities across the nation, and they deserve our praise.

At the same time, we must take whatever action is necessary to guarantee fair rates for the people of Northeastern North Carolina, and I am prepared to do that.

But a good energy policy should do more than regulate. It should produce more energy. And that requires three things: investments, innovation and incentives—investments in research, innovations in how we use energy and incentives that will encourage people to adopt alternative forms of energy.

North Carolina is already a national leader in blazing an alternative energy path. We are proving that the future does not have to be cold and dark. We are proving that, while the world may be running out of cheap oil and gas, it is not running out of energy.

North Carolina is a national leader in energy conservation.

We are using solar power, wood and water power.

We have under way a Revolving Solar Trust Fund designed to finance the construction of one solar demonstration home in all 100 counties.

We have created the North Carolina Energy Institute and the Alternative Energy Corporation. Both are pioneering in the search for new forms of energy.

This year, I will ask you to enact a package of tax incentives that will encourage our citizens to use those new sources.

This will include a passive solar tax credit.

It will include restoring the tax credit for insulation.

It will include investment credits for businesses and farms that install alternative energy sources.

I will also propose legislation to establish a program that will help people obtain low-interest loans to install solar energy equipment in their homes.

One of the most crucial issues facing our state today is the safe management of hazardous and low-level radioactive wastes. We are the fourth largest generator of low-level radioactive waste in the nation—202,000 cubic feet in 1979—and the eleventh largest generator of hazardous waste—more than 120 million gallons in the same year.

The generators of these wastes are the backbone of our economy. The textile industry generates varsol solvents, dye sludges and lubricating and hydraulic oil wastes. The furniture industry can generate waste solvents. Our printing and publishing industry generates solvents and metal residue wastes. Important health tests use radioactive elements.

Last July, I appointed the Governor's Task Force on Waste Management, composed of representatives from state and local governments, higher education, environmental groups and industries. They have worked long and hard to arrive at the best solutions to this problem.

The draft report of this task force is being circulated throughout the state now for public comment, and the final report is due in February.

It will call upon us for some hard decisions—decisions that will determine our future and our children's future, decisions about who will be ultimately responsible for a comprehensive and safe management system, decisions about how it will be accomplished. These are decisions that must be made if North Carolina is to move ahead in the 1980s.

We must strengthen our program of monitoring air quality. We are in danger of losing good industry if we don't.

We must continue our work to clean up the Chowan River and save our other rivers from pollution.

We must maintain strong protection of our precious and fragile coastal region.

Just as we must maintain our natural resources, we must maintain our capital resources. We cannot let our roads and highways and bridges fall into ruin and disrepair. We cannot leave a legacy of neglect to future generations. The responsibility to prevent that is yours as members of this General Assembly.

All of our efforts to build our economy will fail without a good system of transportation to supply our farms and homes and industries and to transport our products across the state, the nation and the world.

I will not make any recommendation to you on this issue until the spring. I will be working until then to determine how much of our current revenues we can save.

We must remember that North Carolina's economy cannot be strong if agriculture is not strong.

Every day in the United States, 12 square miles of American farmland are lost to shopping malls, housing development and highways. We must develop a way to protect our prime farmland from unnecessary and unwise development, and I will propose legislation to do that.

We must provide greater support for our farm exports and our marketing facilities.

And we must expand our agricultural research and extension efforts.

CONCLUSION

Let me conclude tonight with this.

I have sought to present you and the State of North Carolina with more than a budget.

I have outlined a program for progress, a strategy for the future.

Across the nation, we see other states laying their plans. Many are content to stand still, or even to turn back.

But North Carolina cannot afford to stand still or to turn back. We cannot hide from the future.

We must not be afraid to swim against the tide, to sail against the wind.

We must move ahead.

I have a vision for North Carolina.

It is one in which we face the future without fear.

It is one in which we live together in safety, peace and harmony.

It is one in which every human being is free to be all he or she can aspire to be.

It is one in which no child goes to bed sick, or hungry, or hurt.

It is one in which older adults live in dignity and comfort.

Does that sound like an idealistic vision? Certainly it is.

But we can achieve it.

I believe in North Carolina, our people and our promise.

Last Saturday, I was sworn in as North Carolina's 41st elected governor.

This week you convene as North Carolina's 134th General Assembly.

What we do this year, we do for 400 years of history that come before us and untold generations that will follow.

What will we leave for them?

It can be a legacy of hope and progress.

It can be a North Carolina in which, truly, the weak grow strong and the strong grow great.

Let us—General Assembly and Governor together—leave that legacy this year.

SPECIAL MESSAGE ON CRIME
TO THE NORTH CAROLINA GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN JOINT SESSION BY GOVERNOR JAMES B. HUNT, JR.

February 2, 1981

This is the third time I have come before this General Assembly to deliver a Special Message on Crime.

During the last four years, this legislature has responded, and it has led. You have given North Carolina new weapons in the war on crime:

- A law requiring speedy trials.
- A presumptive-sentencing law.
- Harsher penalties for drug smugglers.
- Mandatory prison terms for armed robbers.

And the people have responded. We have mobilized thousands of North Carolinians to fight crime in their communities and their neighborhoods by preventing it from happening in the first place.

But, as these Sheriffs and Police Chiefs seated in the gallery can tell you, we have a long way to go. The crime rate all over this country remains alarmingly high.

Some people say crime is inevitable and we are helpless to prevent it.

I do not accept that notion.

I do not believe the people of our state have to be held hostage to terror.

I do not believe we have to accept a situation where a family is not safe in its own home, where elderly citizens are afraid to walk on the streets and where women cringe when they hear a knock at the door.

Crime hurts people—the people least able to defend themselves—and we must not tolerate it.

In the last four years, we have forged a more effective and more efficient system of criminal justice. But we must widen our war against crime and fight it on new fronts.

We can't win that war in the police stations and the courtrooms and the prisons alone.

Ultimately, it will be won or lost in the hearts and minds of our people—particularly our young people.

If we save our children, we can save society.

If they turn to a life of delinquency and crime, we will lose.

If they are guided to a lifetime of respect for the law, we will win.

I come to you tonight to propose a strategy to save them and save our future.

STRENGTHENING THE SYSTEM

That strategy builds on the foundation this General Assembly has laid the last four years.

Because of the Speedy Trials Law this legislature passed, defendants now must be tried within 120 days. On October 1, that deadline goes down to 90 days. The courts can be ready by then, and the budget I have proposed to you gives them further assistance. Swift punishment is essential to fighting crime, and I will oppose any effort to further delay that 90-day requirement.

Another change that will deter crime—the Fair Sentencing Act—is scheduled to take effect March 1. It reduces the discretion judges have in determining sentences—discretion that is far too great. I urge you to act within the next three weeks to enact simple amendments that would make the law work better.

This year, we should make further improvements in how our courts work.

We must ensure fairness in selecting juries for criminal trials. I will propose legislation to guarantee that minorities are fairly represented on lists of potential jurors.

And I will recommend legislation reducing the number of potential jurors lawyers can reject. In multi-defendant trials, jury selection often takes too long and costs too much. The Ike Atkinson drug trial in Goldsboro cost our taxpayers $239,352 in legal fees for defendants who claimed to be indigent. Of that figure, $194,676 went to lawyers who took three months to pick a jury. That has to be stopped.

Later in this legislative session, our Courts Commission will come forward with additional proposals to improve the effectiveness of the courts.

They will include incentives for bright young attorneys to make careers of criminal prosecution, the decriminalization of minor traffic offenses and streamlining criminal appeals.

I want to express my gratitude to Chief Justice Joseph Branch, one of the truly outstanding jurists in this nation, for his leadership in bringing about a more efficient administration of justice in North Carolina. He deserves our thanks.

I encourage senior resident Superior Court judges to follow his example. They should meet regularly with court personnel, law enforcement officers, district attorneys and trial lawyers. These meetings can greatly improve the flow of criminal cases and increase public confidence that the entire system is focusing on reducing crime and using tax money wisely.

Just as we should strengthen our criminal justice system we should strengthen our laws against crime.

We must intensify our efforts against organized and white-collar crime.

I urge you to enact a Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations law modeled after the federal statute.

And I join with Attorney General Rufus Edmisten in recommending legislation that will make bid-rigging on any state contract a felony.

We have seen North Carolina's good name besmirched by those who have defrauded the state and cheated the taxpayers.

As Governor, I intend to see that we punish those who have done wrong and recover the taxpayers' money. The law we propose would make the penalties for that extremely severe. This legislature can pass the strictest law in the country to make sure that it never happens again.

We should make other laws stronger.

As part of the Fair-Sentencing Act, I will propose longer sentences for habitual felons.

I also believe a person who commits a crime while out on bail should face consecutive, not concurrent, sentences.

I agree with the district attorneys of this state that those who plan a crime and solicit someone else to carry it out should be subject to the same penalties as those who commit the crime.

And we need to remove the provision in criminal law that prohibits spouses from testifying against each other. We shouldn't force such testimony, but neither should we prohibit it.

Many of the proposals I have talked about tonight are the work of the Governor's Crime Commission. That commission is charged by law with officially planning our state's fight against crime. I am committed to keeping it working, despite the loss of federal funds from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration that it has relied on.

LEAA money has helped local law enforcement agencies modernize and try innovative programs. Just as soon as resources permit, we should provide state crime-control grants to help local governments strengthen their law enforcement.

VICTIM PROTECTION AND ASSISTANCE

The constitutional rights of the accused must always be protected. But I believe the rights of innocent victims should weigh more heavily on the scales of justice.

We should require criminals to pay more restitution to their victims for the losses and injuries they cause. I believe that, over the next four years, we can double the amount of restitution being paid. I urge judges to require it in every possible instance.

Restitution should be made the first priority among payments made by a convicted defendant. The least we can do is pay the poor victim first—before state costs, before court costs, before lawyers' fees, before anything else. I urge you to require that by law.

Whenever we can, we should make the criminal pay restitution to the victim. But it is also time to consider using state funds to help the victim pay for his losses and making the criminal reimburse the state later.

And the people we shall start helping right away are the victims of rape.

I find it unconscionable that our system requires a rape victim to undergo an immediate and often humiliating physical examination—and then makes her pay for it.

We can find the money to do it, and we are going to begin paying for those examinations. And we are going to make the convicted rapists repay the state in full.

We must also extend greater protection to elderly citizens—the people who suffer most from the mental, physical and financial injury inflicted by criminals.

I support legislation that would make it a felony to commit any assault and battery on a person over 60 years of age.

I also recommend that judges consider giving longer sentences to criminals who attack elderly victims.

Let the word go forth from this Governor and this General Assembly: "Friend, if you lay a hand on an elderly person in this state, we're going to throw the book at you."

CITIZEN INVOLVEMENT

We can't hire enough policemen and we can't pass enough laws to eliminate crime. We can make a dramatic difference only if we enlist our people—people who care and are willing to volunteer their time and energy to the war against crime.

Community Watch is a proven deterrent to crime. Three years ago, the Van Story Hills area in Cumberland County had 96 break-ins. Last year, after residents organized a Community Watch, they had only six.

In Buncombe County, the 22,000 people who were part of Community Watch have had only six break-ins the last four years.

We now have more than 6,500 Community Watch programs operating across North Carolina. Our goal is to double that by 1985.

I believe in Community Watch. I belong. I have Community Watch signs at my farm and at the Mansion.

We also have to reach young people. We have to teach them the value of the law. How it holds our society together. How it protects us from a tyranny of terror.

We are working now to take educational programs on crime and our system of justice to more than one and a half million youngsters in Scouts, 4H Clubs and other organizations across North Carolina. And their sharp eyes and ears can be weapons against crime.

PREVENTING JUVENILE CRIME

Those young people are where our war against crime will be won or lost. All of the approaches that I have discussed are important. But a commitment to keeping young people out of crime can do more than all the rest put together.

That commitment should start in the public schools. If you doubt it, take note of the fact that 80 percent of the people in prison in North Carolina are dropouts.

As we teach children to read, to do math, to get a good job, to become responsible—we prevent crime. That underscores how important it is for you to approve the reductions in class size and other educational programs that I proposed in my State of the State address.

When students misbehave, we should use in-school suspension. They should not be given the freedom of the streets. They should be put in a closely supervised classroom, forbidden to talk and required to study every minute.

For too many young people, drug use is the door to a life of crime. Many steal or become prostitutes to support their habits. Others become pushers themselves.

This legislature has provided more SBI agents to attack this problem and enacted jail terms of up to 50 years for drug smugglers. But we should now take another step.

I believe people who purvey drug paraphernalia, trying to popularize drug use among young people, are parasites on society.

I ask you to pass a tough drug paraphernalia law that will pass constitutional muster and put every head shop in North Carolina out of business.

For those youngsters who get into trouble, I will work hard to develop community-based alternatives to incarceration and better treatment for severe emotional disturbances.

Let me talk to you now about what I believe is the most important idea to prevent crime that I have ever discussed with this legislature.

Over the last two years, I have led the National Governors Association's search for the best ways to prevent crime. I believe we have found it. And I intend to devote my crime-fighting efforts to this cause.

It is the matching-up of caring adult volunteers with young people who either have committed their first crime or appear headed for it. Right then, before they become criminals, we have got to help them.

The help they need is a real friend, someone who will spend time with them, help them work out their problems, encourage their school work, help them develop self-esteem, and help them get a job if they want to work.

They often come from broken homes. Many were abused children. Most of them never had a chance.

They need someone who will do what a good parent does.

Probation and parole officers work with hundreds of young people in trouble. District Court judges and court counselors see dozens come before them.

They know what kind of help these kids need, and they know they're not getting enough.

So what are we going to do about it? I suggest that thousands of us can do something about it by volunteering to help a kid who needs help.

Yes, it would take some time—as much time as some of us spend each week running or watching a couple of basketball games.

It's not easy to know how to do that. Most people don't feel right just walking into the courthouse and searching for somebody to tell them how to help.

That is where those of us in the executive and judicial branches can help. We can show local people how to organize a good, sound program that will match up an adult with a young person and give both of them the support they will need in the months and years ahead.

That means pulling together support from citizens, judges, court counselors and educators.

This approach is being tried by the Volunteers to the Court program in Hertford and Guilford counties and the Partners program in Wake County. Across the nation, whatever you call it—"Partners," "Friends," "Big Brother/Big Sister"—it works, if it's done right.

To help us, I have recruited the man who established the "Friends" program in Concord, New Hampshire, perhaps the most successful program in the country. In that program the adult volunteers and youngsters spend an average of eleven hours per week together. How many of us spend that much time with our own children?

Our goal will be to establish a program like that in each of our 100 counties over the next four years. We will strive to match up every single youngster in trouble with the law with an adult who will love him and help him become a law-abiding and useful citizen.

This is not a government program. Very little, if any, state money will be involved in it. And I ask you for none tonight. Rather, it is a people program. It will need an outpouring of help from the churches of our state, the Jaycees and other helping groups. I appeal to the good citizens of our state to join in this statewide crusade.

These young people, and this approach to crime prevention, require leadership at the highest level.

One of the great problems we face in helping them is a fragmentation of services. Many agencies and many people work with youngsters—the schools, the courts, law enforcement officers, training schools, mental institutions. We at the state level need to pull all of these together into a working team.

I am announcing to you tonight the formation of the Governor's Executive Cabinet on Juveniles. I will personally chair this group, and it will meet monthly.

I have asked the Chief Justice, the Attorney General, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Secretary of Human Resources, the Secretary of Correction, the Secretary of Crime Control and Public Safety, the Chairman of the Crime Commission and the Chairman of the Courts Commission to serve on it.

It will be our responsibility to sit down together every month and take a hard look at how good a job the agencies under us are doing. And to get citizens involved.

If we aren't satisfied—and we should never be satisfied—each of us will be responsible for going back and talking to the people, whoever they may be—who can make a difference.

We will use all the powers we have—hiring and firing, the budget and just plain persuasion—to see that we do a better job.

CONCLUSION

I would conclude my message tonight by making this appeal to the people of North Carolina.

I appeal to you to learn what you can do for the young people in your communities.

I appeal to you to volunteer to develop a one-on-one relationship that will save a kid and bring more meaning to your own life.

Love and caring can do more to prevent crime than jails and courtrooms.

If we lose our war against crime, the blame would not rest on the law enforcement officers here tonight, or thousands more working across our state, or the judges or the district attorneys.

The blame would rest on all of us who fail to act and fail to help.

The right to be safe is fundamental in our society.

And it carries with it a responsibility—a responsibility to be involved and to help bring about justice.

— Justice for the victim, in the form of comfort and assistance.

— Justice for the youngster headed wrong, guidance and understanding.

— Justice for the criminal, swift and sure.

I ask the people of North Carolina: What will you do to bring about justice?

You can save someone's life. You can give them a future. You can make a difference.

And, in doing so, you can make North Carolina a safer place to live—for you, for your family, for your neighbors, for five million eight hundred thousand people.

Two weeks ago, I proposed a strategy for North Carolina's future. I said we can build our economy and provide greater opportunities for every single person. And I said we could help our people become successful citizens.

But we cannot walk into that bright future if we cannot walk safely on our streets.

We cannot dream great dreams if our children turn to drugs and stealing as a way of life.

We cannot let criminals tear down what we build.

Let us resolve tonight, all of us, to guarantee for all North Carolinians the most important freedom—the freedom from fear.

ADDRESS TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY ON HIGHWAY NEEDS

by
GOVERNOR JAMES B. HUNT, JR.

Tuesday, April, 28, 1981

Last night, I went on statewide television to talk with the people of this State about our roads—and our future.

My speech to you today will not be a rerun.

You have been in session for more than three months. You know what the problem is.

Today, I want to explain my proposal to you—how I propose we obtain additional revenues and how I plan to assure the wise and efficient use of that money.

But, more than that, I want to talk to you about the responsibility that you and I have together—to act, to face up to this problem and to do what has to be done for North Carolina's future.

When I delivered my State of the State address to you in January, I said that we should begin our deliberations with that question: What can we do this year—as Governor and as members of the General Assembly—to help North Carolinians in a time of economic hardship?

That is also the question here today.

I also said then that our agenda this year should be opening the doors of economic opportunity to all North Carolinians and making it possible for everyone who lives in this state to earn a good living and provide adequately for their families.

That is our agenda here today.

If we fail to act responsibly this year to protect our investment in our roads and highways, we have failed in our responsibility, and North Carolinians will pay the price for years to come.

They will pay the price in lost industry, lost jobs, lost income, lost opportunities.

They will pay the price in lost travel business—an industry that brought our people $2.3 billion in income last year.

They will pay the price in damage to their own cars and trucks and in higher repair bills.

Worst of all, they will pay the price in human beings killed and maimed on the highways.

That is the price the people will pay if we fail them this year. We must not fail them.

Over the years, North Carolina has built the reputation as "the good roads state." And for good reason.

But it wasn't always that way. At the turn of the century, Governor Glenn said that North Carolina's greatest handicaps were ignorance and muddy roads.

We pulled our state out of ignorance by building a strong system of public schools, community colleges and great universities.

And we pulled our state out of the mud by building 76,000 miles of roads and highways—enough to circle the Earth at the Equator three times.

It's the largest state road system in the nation. Many states pay part of their road costs through county property taxes. But we built and we maintain our roads totally through state revenues, primarily from the gasoline tax.

And we have built our economy on those 76,000 miles of roads.

Without those roads and highways, we could not have enjoyed the record economic growth of recent years—the $8 billion worth of industrial investment announced in the last four years and the 120,000 new manufacturing jobs.

Good roads helped us attract Philip Morris to Cabarrus County, Campbell Soup to Robeson County, IBM to Charlotte, Rockwell to Henderson County, GKN plants to Lee and Alamance Counties, General Electric to the Research Triangle and Cummins-Case to Nash County.

We cannot afford to lose the competitive edge our roads give us. We see what has happened in our nation's Northeast, where the roads are crumbling and where industries are closing down and moving away. Many of them are coming here. North Carolina cannot afford to go down that same road.

That is why the decision we make this year will be critical. Our roads and highways are in good shape today, because we've done a good job keeping them up in the past.

But we're just starting to see and feel the cracks, the little holes that become big potholes and the crumbling shoulders.

For more than a year, our situation was studied by the Blue-Ribbon Commission chaired by former Governor and Supreme Court Justice Dan K. Moore. I urge you to read their report carefully.

His commission found that our highway revenues have been going down recently about 5% a year, while the cost of maintenance and construction has gone up as high as 20 percent a year.

The result? We have fallen behind on our resurfacing. Governor Moore's commission concluded that we need to resurface at least 2,600 miles each year to keep up with normal wear and tear. In recent years, we have been doing 1,300 miles. This year, we can only afford to do 740 miles.

So, when his commission completed its work, Governor Moore wrote in an open letter to all North Carolinians that "we must make a major investment in resurfacing and maintaining our highways or we will face a major and unprecedented expense of highway rebuilding in the near future."

The Moore Commission, which included members of this General Assembly, did an excellent job. I am guided largely by their thorough and expert findings.

What I recommend to you today is a minimum program—one required of us as good stewards.

If we do not act this year, we will face a difficult choice between stopping all construction on projects in the Seven-Year Plan or falling farther and farther behind on maintenance, leading ultimately to the ruin of our system.

Here is what I suggest we do.

First, we need an additional $247 million over the biennium to return to a regular resurfacing schedule of 2,600 miles a year and to catch up on what we haven't been able to do in recent years. To catch up, we need to do an extra 1,000 miles each of the next five years.

Second, we must replace or repair many bridges. More than half of our 16,000 bridges today cannot support the legal weight. More than 4,000 cannot support the weight of a loaded school bus.

Third, we need an additional $18 million to match our share of federal aid funds for the construction of essential primary highways. North Carolina used to be a "donor" state—sending more gas tax dollars to Washington than it got back. We have reversed that situation in the last four years, and now we get back more than we put in. We must continue to get our fair share.

Fourth, we need an additional $93 million for some badly needed improvements on some smaller roads and for access roads to new industry. Without some safety improvements, certain roads in our state will continue to cause accidents, injuries and deaths.

Fifth, we must provide adequate support to our airports, bus systems and ferries. They are all a part of our modern transportation system.

We will provide $40 million for the cities, $11 million more than they are now receiving. An equal amount will be earmarked for secondary roads.

That minimum program will require a little over $200 million in revenue next year.

But, before I ask you to provide that revenue and before we ask our people to pay it, we must give them a guarantee.

It is apparent that the taxpayers of this state have been cheated for decades by bid-rigging. Those involved are being indicted, prosecuted and punished. We will fire any state employee who was involved.

But we need stronger laws to prevent it from ever happening again.

Earlier this year, the Attorney General and I proposed legislation that would give North Carolina one of the toughest laws in the nation against bid-rigging.

This law would make bid-rigging of any kind a felony, punishable by 10 years in prison. It would prohibit state employees from receiving anything of value from anyone doing business with the state.

It's tough, and it's right. And I urge you to pass it just as soon as possible.

Now, here is how I recommend we obtain the revenue we need.

The first source of that money should be savings in the operation of the Department of Transportation. This General Assembly's Select Committee on Transportation has made many good suggestions, and I appreciate their work.

That department and Secretary Tom Bradshaw have already made changes over the past four years that are saving the taxpayers of this state millions of dollars each year:

- The Department of Transportation has 1,000 fewer positions than it did four years ago and that saves $14.5 million each year.

- The department has 4,000 fewer pieces of equipment than it did four years ago.

- And the department is burning three million gallons of gasoline less each year.

That is a good record. But we need to do more.

I have directed the department to take a number of additional new steps. The Board of Transportation will reevaluate the need for every project in the Seven-Year Plan that is not already new construction. Medians and right-of-way will be narrower. We will double the number of prisoners working on the roads. We will reduce the number of people in state maintenance crews.

I believe these steps can save $20 million.

I also recommend that you put revenues from the sales tax on automobile parts and accessories into the Highway Fund. That will give us $59 million. To replace that money in the General Fund, I will recommend a 50% increase in the tax on alcoholic beverages, a severance tax on minerals mined in our state and a sales tax on vacation homes that are rented out for less than 90 days.

Trucks should be paying more, and I recommend that you increase their license costs and impose a special charge on overweight and oversized loads. We have a great trucking industry in North Carolina, and I know they expect to pay their fair share. This would give us $16.9 million.

I recommend that you increase the cost of drivers' licenses, which are renewed only every four years, to $10 and the cost of chauffeurs' licenses to $15. This would give us $14.5 million.

I recommend that you increase various miscellaneous fees in the Division of Motor Vehicles. This will give us $7.4 million.

I recommend that you obtain the remaining $90 million that we need by increasing the gasoline tax by 3 cents per gallon.

But, as I said in my address to the people last night, I recommend that you do it in a way that will not increase the cost of living for the average North Carolinian, but will put the burden on those who use the roads the most.

I propose that we allow an income tax credit for the three cents extra paid up to a maximum of 750 gallons of gasoline for necessary personal driving.

Those 750 gallons, in a car that gets 16 miles per gallon, would take you 12,000 miles. That is about what the average family drives in a year, for going to work, taking kids to school and shopping.

By filling out a simple form on their income taxes, people could claim a credit of up to $22.50—the same amount this tax increase would cost them at the pump each year.

I want to commend Senator Kenneth Royall for developing this approach. It meets the twin objectives of providing additional highway revenue and putting the burden on trucks, business vehicles and out-of-state travelers.

I think this approach is reasonable, fair and affordable.

It is consistent with this General Assembly's concern not to raise the cost of living for the average taxpayer. In fact, in 1979 you provided a tax cut for our people by increasing all exemptions and the standard deduction on state income taxes by 10 percent and increasing dependents exemptions from $600 to $800 each. During the eight years that I have had the privilege of working with you as Lieutenant Governor and Governor, this General Assembly has passed no tax increases.

This minimum package of revenues for our roads is also appropriate in a year of lean budgets and spending restraints which you have worked on so hard. You have already cut the continuation budget after close and careful scrutiny, and the expansion budget which I recommended to you for next year does something that not even President Reagan proposes to do in Wahsington: it actually reduces the number of state employees.

The operations of the Department of Transportation must reflect that same hard-nosed approach to efficiency. In addition to the items of savings that I mentioned earlier, there are other good recommendations in the 29-point report prepared by the Select Committee of the General Assembly which studied the Department of Transportation. Others have come from the Appropriations Committees. We are beginning to implement some of them already and I promise you that we will carry through every single one of them from which real savings and better management can emerge. And I will devote more of my time as Governor in helping see that that massive department does even more to operate efficiently.

In particular, we will make an all-out effort to do two things: First, to see that work crews doing maintenance or construction contain the minimum number of personnel needed, and that all of them are working. Second, to get every prisoner in our system that we possibly can "working on the roads." They will have to be identified, and we must take adequate security precautions. But I don't want a single idle prisoner in the corrections system of North Carolina on any day when it is possible to have him working on the roads—for his benefit and to help pay his debt to society.

This year, I have not presented you with a lengthy legislative program. But I have proposed—and you have proposed as members of this General Assembly—legislation that is critical for North Carolina's economic future. And it all fits together: legislation that affects taxes and our business climate, funds for better technical education and to prevent "drop-outs," encouragement for energy conservation and alternatives, safe management of hazardous wastes, high technology research and development. But money to keep our good road system is the most important step we will take, by far.

The Wall Street Journal recently surveyed 1,200 experts across the nation who are involved in the location of industrial plants. That newspaper asked them to rank the importance of various factors in site selection. "Highway Transportation Facilities" ranked third, behind only the availability of labor and a reliable energy supply.

You and I are fortunate to be leading North Carolina together at a time I believe is one of the best in our history. The magazine, Nation's Business, recently cited North Carolina as one of the top three states in America in which for industry to locate. I believe we can be "Number One." What we do this year on our roads will determine that more than anything else.

Over many decades, this General Assembly has had two great hallmarks: a commitment to fiscal responsibility, and a commitment to economic growth.

I ask you to reaffirm that commitment this year, by protecting our investment in North Carolina's highways and North Carolina's future.

H. R. 23, A HOUSE RESOLUTION ADOPTING THE PERMANENT RULES OF THE 1981 SESSION OF THE NORTH CAROLINA HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives:

Section 1. The permanent rules of the 1981 Session shall read as follows:

RULES OF THE 1981 HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA

- I. Order of Business, 1-5
- II. Conduct of Debate, 6-12
- III. Motions, 13-19
- IV. Voting, 20-25
- V. Committees, 26-30
- VI. Handling of Bills, 31-44
- VII. Legislative Officers and Employees, 45-49
- VIII. Privileges of the Hall, 50-53
- IX. General Rules, 54-61

I. ORDER OF BUSINESS

RULE 1. Convening Hour.—The House shall convene each legislative day at the hour fixed by the House. In the event the House adjourns on the preceding legislative day without having fixed an hour for reconvening, the House shall convene on the next legislative day at 1:30 p.m.

RULE 2. Opening the Session.—At the convening hour on each legislative day the Speaker shall call the members to order and shall have the session opened with prayer.

RULE 3. Quorum.—(a) A quorum consists of a majority of the qualified members of the House.

(b) Should the point of a quorum be raised, the doors shall be closed and the Clerk shall call the roll of the House, after which the names of those not responding shall again be called. In the absence of a quorum, fifteen members are authorized to compel the attendance of absent members and may order that absentees for whom no sufficient excuses are made be taken into custody wherever they may be found by special messenger appointed for that purpose.

RULE 4. Approval of Journal.—(a) The Committee on Rules and Operation of the House shall cause the Journal of the House to be examined daily before the hour of convening to determine if the proceedings of the previous day have been correctly recorded.

(b) Immediately following the opening prayer and upon appearance of a quorum, the Speaker shall call for the Journal report by the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Operation of the House or by a Representative designated by the Chairman as to whether the proceedings of the previous day have been correctly recorded. Without objection, the Speaker shall cause the Journal to stand approved.

RULE 5. Order of Business of the Day.—After the approval of the Journal of the preceding day, the House shall proceed to business in the following order:

- (1) The receiving of petitions, memorials and papers addressed to the General Assembly or to the House;
- (2) Reports of standing committees;
- (3) Reports of select committees;
- (4) First reading and reference to committee of bills and resolutions;
- (5) Messages from the Senate;
- (6) Concurrence with Senate amendments or Senate committee substitutes;
- (7) The unfinished business of the preceding day;
- (8) Calendar (each category in accordance with Rule 40):
 - (a) Local bills (roll call) third reading
 - (b) Local bills (roll call) second reading
 - (c) Local bills third reading
 - (d) Local bills second reading
 - (e) Public bills (roll call) third reading

- (f) Public bills (roll call) second reading
- (g) Public bills and resolutions, third reading
- (h) Public bills and resolutions, second reading;
- (9) Reading of Notices and Announcements; but messages and motions to elect officers shall always be in order.

II. CONDUCT OF DEBATE

RULE 6. Duties and Powers of the Speaker.—The Speaker shall have general direction of the Hall. He may name any member to perform the duties of the Chair, but substitution shall not extend beyond one day, except in the case of sickness or by leave of the House.

RULE 7. Obtaining Floor.—(a) When any member desires recognition for any purpose, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address the Speaker. No member shall proceed until recognized by the Speaker.

(b) When a member desires to interrupt a member having the floor, he shall first obtain recognition by the Speaker and permission of the member occupying the floor, and when such recognition and permission have been obtained, he may propound a question to the member occupying the floor; but he shall not otherwise interrupt the member having the floor, except as provided in subsection (c) of this rule; and the Speaker shall, without the point of order being raised, enforce this rule.

(c) A member who has obtained the floor may be interrupted only for the following reasons;

1. a request that the member speaking yield for a question,
2. a point of order, or
3. a parliamentary inquiry.

RULE 8. Questions of Personal Privilege.—Upon recognition by the Speaker for that purpose, any member may speak to a question of personal privilege for a time not to exceed three (3) minutes. Personal privilege may not be used to explain a vote or debate a bill. The Speaker shall determine if the question is one of privilege and shall, without the point of order being raised, enforce this rule.

RULE 9. Points of Order.—(a) The Speaker shall decide questions of order and may speak to points of order in preference to other members arising from their seats for that purpose. Any member may appeal from the ruling of the Chair on questions of order; on such appeal no member may speak more than once, unless by leave of the House. A two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present shall be necessary to sustain any appeal from the ruling of the Chair.

(b) When the Speaker calls a member to order, the member shall take his seat except that a member called to order may clear a matter of fact, or explain, but shall not proceed in debate so long as the decision stands. If the member appeals from the ruling of the Chair and the decision by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present be in favor of the member called to order, he may proceed; if otherwise, he shall not; and if the case, in the judgment of the House, requires it, he shall be liable to censure by the House.

RULE 10. Limitations on Debate.—No member shall speak more than twice on the main question, nor longer than thirty minutes for the first speech and fifteen minutes for the second speech, unless allowed to do so by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present; nor shall he speak more than once upon an amendment or motion to reconsider, commit, appeal or postpone, and then not longer than ten minutes. The House may, however, by consent of a majority of the members present, suspend the operation of this rule during any debate on any particular question before the House.

RULE 11. Reading of Papers—When there is a call for the reading of the text of a paper which has been presented to the House, and there is objection to such reading, the question shall be determined by a majority vote of the members of the House present. Except for protests permitted by the Constitution, no member may have material printed in the Journal until said material has been presented to the House and the printing approved by the House, and said material shall not exceed 1,000 words.

RULE 12. General Decorum—(a) The Speaker shall preserve order and decorum.

(b) Decency of speech shall be observed and disrespect to personalities carefully avoided.

(c) When the Speaker is putting any question, or addressing the House, no person shall speak, stand up, walk out of or cross the House, nor when a member is speaking, engage in disruptive discourse or pass between the member and the Chair.

(d) Food or beverages shall not be permitted on the floor of the House.

(e) The reading of newspapers shall not be permitted on the floor of the House while the House is in session.

(f) Smoking or the consumption of food or beverages shall not be permitted in the galleries at any time.

(g) Special recitals, performances by musicians or other groups shall not be permitted on the floor of the House and special guests of members of the House shall not be permitted on the floor of the House.

(h) Members shall observe appropriate attire, coat and tie for male members and dignified dress for female members.

III. MOTIONS

RULE 13. Motions Generally—(a) Every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Speaker or any two members request it.

(b) When a motion is made, it shall be stated by the Speaker, or, if written, it shall be handed to the Chair and read aloud by the Speaker or Clerk before debate.

(c) After a motion has been stated by the Speaker or read by the Speaker or Clerk, it shall be in the possession of the House; but it may be withdrawn before a decision or amendment, except in case of a motion to reconsider, which motion, when made by a member, shall be in possession of the House and shall not be withdrawn without leave of the House.

RULE 14. Motions, Order of Precedence—When there are motions before the House, the order of precedence is as follows:

To adjourn

To lay on the table

To postpone indefinitely

Previous question

To postpone to a day certain

To commit

To amend an amendment

To amend

To substitute

To pass the bill

No motion to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a day certain, to commit or to make a particular amendment, being decided, shall be again allowed at the same stage of the bill or proposition.

RULE 15. Motion to Adjourn—(a) A motion to adjourn shall be seconded before the motion is put to the vote of the House.

(b) A motion to adjourn shall be decided without debate, and shall always be in order, except when the House is voting or some member is speaking; but a motion to adjourn shall not follow a motion to adjourn until debate or some other business of the House has intervened.

RULE 16. Motion to Table—(a) A motion to table shall be seconded before the motion is put to the vote of the House and is in order except when a motion to adjourn is before the House.

(b) A motion to table shall be decided without debate.

(c) A motion to table a bill shall constitute a motion to table the bill and all amendments thereto.

(d) When the question before the House is the adoption of an amendment to a bill or resolution, a motion to table the bill is not in order, and a motion to table an amendment applies to the amendment only, and the motion may not expressly or by implication or construction be expanded to include a motion to table the bill also.

(e) When a question has been tabled, it shall not thereafter be considered except on motion to reconsider under Rule 18, or to remove from the table approved by a two-thirds (2/3) vote.

RULE 17. Motion to Postpone Indefinitely—A motion to postpone indefinitely is in order except when a motion to adjourn or to lay on the table is before the House. However, after one motion to postpone indefinitely has been decided, another motion to postpone indefinitely shall not be allowed at the same stage of the bill or proposition. When a question has been postponed indefinitely, it shall not thereafter be considered except on motion to reconsider under Rule 18, or to place on the favorable calendar approved by a two-thirds (2/3) vote.

RULE 18. Motion to Reconsider—(a) When a question has been decided, it is in order for any member to move for the reconsideration thereof, on the same or the succeeding legislative day; provided that if the vote by which the motion was originally decided was taken by a recorded vote, only a member of the majority may move for reconsideration.

(b) A motion to reconsider shall be determined by a majority vote, except a motion to reconsider a vote upon a motion to table, a motion to postpone indefinitely, a motion to remove a bill from the unfavorable calendar, a motion that a bill be read twice on the same day, or a motion to remove from the table, which shall require a two-thirds (2/3) vote.

RULE 19. Previous Question—(a) The previous question may be called only by the member submitting the report on the bill or other matter under consideration, by the member introducing the bill or other matter under consideration, or by the member in charge of the measure, who shall be designated by the Chairman of the committee reporting the same to the House at the time the bill or other matter under consideration is reported to the House or taken up for consideration.

(b) The previous question shall be as follows: "Shall the main question now be put?" When the call for the previous question has been decided in the affirmative by a majority vote of the House, the "main question" is on the passage of the bill, resolution or other matter under consideration.

(c) The call for the previous question shall preclude all motions, amendments and debate, except the motion to adjourn or motion to table or motion to postpone indefinitely prior to the determination of the previous question.

(d) If the previous question is decided in the negative, the main question remains under debate.

IV. VOTING

RULE 20. Use of Electronic Voting System.—(a) Votes on the following questions shall be taken on the electronic voting system, and the ayes and noes shall be recorded on the Journal:

- (1) All questions on which the Constitution of North Carolina requires that the ayes and noes be taken and recorded on the Journal.
- (2) All measures affecting a fee imposed by the State or any subdivision thereof.
- (3) All questions on which a call for the ayes and noes under Rule 24(a) has been sustained.
- (4) Both second and third readings of bills proposing amendment of the Constitution of North Carolina or ratifying resolutions amending the Constitution of the United States.

(b) Votes on the following questions shall be taken on the electronic voting system:

- (1) Second reading of all public bills, all amendments to public bills offered after second reading, third reading if a public bill was amended after second reading or if the reading occurs on a day or days following the second reading, all conference reports on public bills, all motions to lay public bills on the table, and all motions to postpone public bills indefinitely.
- (2) Upon a call for division.
- (3) Any other question upon direction of the Speaker or upon motion of any member supported by one-fifth (1/5) of the members present.

(c) When the electronic voting system is used, twenty seconds shall be allowed for voting on the question before the House, unless the Chair shall direct otherwise. The system shall be set to close automatically when that time has expired. After the system is closed, the Speaker may allow any member to vote until he orders the system locked. Once the system is locked, the vote shall be recorded and printed.

(d) The voting station at each member's desk in the Chamber shall be used only by the member to which the station is assigned. Under no circumstances shall any other person vote at a member's station. It is a breach of the ethical obligation of a member either to request that another person vote at the requesting member's station, or to vote at another member's station. The Speaker shall enforce this rule without exception.

(e) When the electronic voting system is used, the Speaker shall state the question and shall then state substantially the following: "All in favor vote 'aye'; all opposed vote 'no'; the Clerk will open the vote." After the allotted time for voting has elapsed, the Speaker shall say: "The Clerk will now lock the machine and record the vote." After the machine is locked and the vote recorded, the Speaker shall announce the vote and declare the result.

(f) One copy of the machine printout of the vote record of all votes taken on the electronic system shall be filed in the office of the Principal Clerk, and one copy shall be filed in the Legislative Library where it shall be open to public inspection.

(g) When the Speaker ascertains that the electronic voting system is inoperative before a vote is taken or while a vote is being taken on the electronic system, he shall announce that fact to the House and any partial electronic system voting record shall be voided. In such a case, if the Constitution of North Carolina or the Rules of the House require a call of the ayes and noes, the Clerk shall call the roll of the House, and the ayes and noes shall be taken manually and shall be recorded on the Journal. All roll call votes shall be taken alphabetically. All other votes shall be taken by voice vote. If, after a vote is taken on the electronic system, it is discovered that a malfunction caused an error in the electronic system printout, the Speaker shall direct the Reading Clerk and the Principal Clerk to verify and correct the printout record and so advise the House.

(h) For the purpose of identifying motions on which the vote is taken on the electronic system, the motions are coded as follows:

1. To adjourn
2. To lay on the table
3. To postpone indefinitely
4. Previous question
5. To postpone to a day certain
6. To commit
7. To amend an amendment
8. To amend
9. To substitute
10. To reconsider
11. To concur or not concur
12. Miscellaneous

RULE 21. Voice Votes; Stating Questions.—(a) When the electronic voting system is not used, the Speaker shall rise and put a question.

(b) The question shall be put in this form, namely, "Those in favor (as the question may be) will say 'Aye,'" and after the affirmation voice has been expressed, "Those opposed will say 'No'."

RULE 22. Determining Questions.—Unless otherwise provided by the Constitution of North Carolina or by these rules, all questions shall be determined by a simple majority of the members present and voting.

RULE 23. Voting by Division.—Any member may call for a division of the members upon the question before the result of the vote has been announced. Upon a call for a division, the Speaker shall cause the number voting in the affirmative and in the negative to be determined. Upon a division and count of the House on any question, no member away from his seat shall be counted.

RULE 24. Roll Call Vote.—(a) Before a question is put, any member may call for the ayes and noes. If the call is sustained by one-fifth (1/5) of the members present, the question shall be decided by the ayes and noes upon a roll call vote.

(b) Every member who is in the Hall of the House when the question is put shall vote upon a call of the ayes and noes, unless excused pursuant to Rule 24.1A.

RULE 24.1A. Excuse From Deliberations and Voting on a Bill.—(a) Any member shall upon request be excused from the deliberations and voting on a particular bill, but to do so must make that request after the second reading of the bill and before any motion or vote on the bill or any amendment thereto. If the reason for the request arises at some point later in the proceedings, the request may be made at that time.

(b) The member may make a brief statement of the reasons for making that request. The member may send forward to the Principal Clerk, on a form provided by the Clerk, a concise statement of the reason for the request, and the Clerk shall include this statement in the Journal.

(c) The member so excused shall not debate the bill or any amendment to the bill, vote on the bill, offer or vote on any amendment to the bill, or offer or vote on any motion concerning the bill at that reading, any subsequent reading, or any subsequent consideration of the bill.

(d) A member may request that his excuse from deliberations on a particular bill be withdrawn.

RULE 24.1B. Separation of Propositions.—Any member may call for a question to be divided into two or more propositions to be voted on separately, and the Speaker shall determine whether the question admits of such a division.

RULE 25. Voting by Speaker.—In all elections the Speaker may vote. In all other instances he may exercise his right to vote, or he may reserve this right until there is a tie in which event he may vote, but in no instance may he vote twice on the same question.

V. COMMITTEES

RULE 26. Committees Generally.—(a) All standing and select committees shall be appointed by the Speaker. The Speaker shall appoint all standing committees at the beginning of the session.

(b) Ten legislative days after the Speaker makes his initial appointments to a standing or select committee, he shall not increase the membership of that committee, but may fill any vacancies which occur on that committee.

(c) The first member announced on each committee shall be Chairman, and where the Speaker so desires he may designate a cochairman and one or more vice-chairmen.

(d) Either the Chairman or the Acting Chairman, designated by the Chairman or by the Speaker, and five other members of the committee, or a majority of the committee, whichever is fewer, shall constitute a quorum of that committee.

(e) In any joint meeting of the Senate and House Committees, the House Committee reserves the right to vote separately.

RULE 27. List of Standing Committees.—The standing committees are:

Aging.

Agriculture.

Alcoholic Beverage Control.

RULE 28. Committee Meetings.—(a) Standing committees and subcommittees of standing committees shall be furnished with suitable meeting places pursuant to a schedule adopted by the Committee on Rules and Operation of the House. Select committees shall be furnished with suitable meeting places as their needs require by the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Operation of the House.

(b) Subject to the provisions of the subsection (c) of this Rule, committees and subcommittees thereof shall permit other members of the General Assembly, the press, and the general public to attend all sessions of said committees or subcommittees.

(c) The Chairman or other presiding officer shall have general direction of the meeting place of the committee or subcommittee and, in case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct therein, or if the peace, good order, and proper conduct of the legislative business is hindered by any person or persons, the Chairman or presiding officer shall have power to exclude from the session any individual or individuals so hindering the legislative business or, if necessary, to order the meeting place cleared of all persons not members of the committee or subcommittee.

(d) Procedure in the committees shall be governed by the rules of the House, so far as the same may be applicable to such procedure. Before a question is put, any member may call for the ayes and noes. If the call is sustained by one-fifth (1/5) of the members present, the question shall be decided by the ayes and noes upon a roll call vote. All roll call votes shall be taken alphabetically.

(e) No committee or subcommittee shall meet on any day when the House shall not convene except by permission of the Speaker or by approval of the House by resolution adopted by a majority vote of the House.

(f) No committee or subcommittee shall meet during any session of the House and all committee and subcommittee meetings shall adjourn no later than 15 minutes preceding a regular session of the House.

(g) any call or notice of a standing committee meeting between legislative sessions shall be mailed to each member of the committee by certified mail at least five days prior to such meeting.

(h) During committee meetings the Chairman may exercise his right to vote, or he may reserve this right until there is a tie, in which event he may vote, but in no instance may the Chairman vote twice on the same question.

RULE 29. Notice of Committee Meetings and Committee Hearings; Minutes.—Public notice of all standing committee meetings shall be given in the House. The Chairman of the committee shall notify or cause to be notified the sponsor of each bill which is set for hearing or consideration before the committee as to the date, time and place of that meeting.

RULE 29.1. Public Hearings.—(a) Any member may request in writing a public hearing on a public bill. Refusal to grant a member's request may be appealed to the Speaker. Requests by other than members may be granted in the discretion of the Chairman. Notice shall be given not less than five calendar days prior to public hearings. These notices shall be issued as information for the press and information shall be posted in the places designated by the Principal Clerk.

(b) Persons desiring to appear and be heard at a public hearing shall submit their request to the Chairman of the committee. The committee Chairman may designate one or more members to arrange the order of appearance of interested parties. A brief, written statement of testimony may be submitted to the committee without oral presentation and shall be incorporated in the minutes of the public hearing.

(c) Committee Minutes to Legislative Library. The Chairman of a committee shall insure that written minutes are compiled for each of the committee's meetings. The minutes shall indicate the members present and the actions taken by the committee at the meeting. Not later than 20 days after the adjournment of each session of the General Assembly, the Chairman shall deliver the minutes to the Legislative Library. The Speaker of the House may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing said minutes upon application of the committee Chairman.

RULE 30. Committee of the Whole House.—(a) A Committee of the Whole House shall not be formed, except by suspension of the rules, if there be objection by any member.

(b) After passage of a motion to form a Committee of the Whole House, the Speaker shall appoint a Chairman to preside in committee, and the Speaker shall leave the Chair.

(c) The rules of procedure in the House shall be observed in the Committee of the Whole House, so far as they may be applicable, except the rule limiting the time of speaking and the previous question.

(d) In the Committee of the Whole House a motion that the committee rise shall always be in order, except when a member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate.

(e) When a bill is submitted to the Committee of the Whole House, it shall be read and debated by sections, leaving the preamble to be last considered. The body of the bill shall not be defaced or interlined, but all amendments, noting the page and line, shall be duly entered by the Clerk on a separate paper as the same shall be agreed to by the committee, and be so reported to the House. After report, the bill shall again be subject to be debated and amended by sections before a question on its passage be taken.

VI. HANDLING OF BILLS

RULE 31. Introduction of Bills and Resolutions.—(a) All bills and resolutions shall be introduced by submitting same to the Principal Clerk's office on the legislative day prior to the first reading and reference thereof according to the following schedule: by 8:30 o'clock p.m. each Monday, by 3:00 o'clock p.m. each Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday.

(b) Bills shall not become resolutions provided the Senate has a similar rule. Resolutions shall not become bills. Resolutions are not law but may be used when a law is not necessary for the purpose contained therein. Resolutions shall not be used to appropriate funds for any purpose, but, for example, may be used to express opinions of the House, to create study commissions or committees or establish investigative committees, to honor deceased persons, and to adopt House rules and internal affairs. Resolutions cannot amend, repeal, or modify a statute; nor do they have life beyond the term of the Session during which they are adopted.

(c) Every bill or resolution shall be read in regular order of business, except upon permission of the Speaker or on the report of a committee.

(d) All bills and resolutions shall show in their captions a brief descriptive statement of the true substance of same, which captions may thereafter be amended; provided that third reading shall not be had on any bill or resolution on the same day that such caption is amended.

(e) A Substitute Bill shall be covered with the same color jacket as the original bill and shall be prefaced as follows:

"House Substitute for" or "House Committee Substitute for _____."

(f) House Resolutions need not be read more than twice.

(g) Celebration, Commendation and Commemoration Resolutions. All celebration, commendation, and commemoration resolutions, except those honoring the memory of deceased persons, shall be excluded from introduction in the House if the Senate has a substantially similar rule on these resolutions.

RULE 31.1. Deadline on Introduction of Certain Bills.—All local bills or bills prepared to be introduced for departments, agencies, or institutions of the State must be introduced not later than April 1 of the session year.

RULE 32. Reference to Committee.—Each bill, joint resolution, or House resolution not introduced on the report of a committee shall immediately upon its first reading be referred by the Speaker to such committee as he deems appropriate.

RULE 33. Papers Addressed to the House.—Petitions, memorials and other papers addressed to the House shall be presented by the Speaker. A brief statement of the contents thereof may be orally made by the introducer before reference to a committee, but such papers shall not be debated or decided on the day of their first being read unless the House shall direct otherwise.

RULE 34. Introduction of Resolutions and Bills, Copies Required.—(a) Whenever any resolution or bill is introduced, a duplicate copy thereof shall be attached thereto, and the Principal Clerk shall cause said duplicate copy to be numbered as the original resolution or bill is numbered, and shall cause the same to be available at all times to the member introducing the same.

(b). Numbering of House Bills shall be designated as "H. B. ____." (No. following). A Joint Resolution shall be designated as "H. J. R. ____." (No. following.) A House Resolution shall be designated as "H. R. ____." (No. following).

(c) Whenever any resolution or bill is filed for introduction, it shall be in such form and have such copies accompanying same as designated by the Speaker, and any resolution or bill introduced without the required number of copies shall be immediately returned to the introducer. The Clerk shall stamp the copies with the number stamped upon the original bill.

RULE 35. Duplicating of Bills.—(a) The Legislative Services Officer shall cause such bills as are introduced to be duplicated in such numbers as may be specified by the Speaker. The Legislative Services Officer shall cause one copy of each resolution and public bill for each legislator to be delivered to his clerk or secretary who shall place it in the appropriate notebook on the legislator's desk. If a legislator so requests, a second copy shall be delivered to his clerk or secretary who shall place it in the legislator's office. The remaining copies shall be placed in the Printed Bills Room and made available to the committees to which the bill is referred, to individual legislators on request, and to the general public.

(b) Availability of Copies of Bills. A public bill is a bill affecting 15 or more counties. A local bill is one affecting fewer than 15 counties. No public bill and, upon objection by a member, no local bill may be considered unless copies of the bill have been made available to the entire membership of the House.

RULE 36. Report by Committee.—All House bills and resolutions shall be reported from the committee to which referred, with such recommendations as the committee may desire to make except in the case where the principal introducer requests in writing to the Chairman of the committee that the bill not be considered. The Chairmen of the full Appropriations Committees may refer a bill or resolution to another appropriations committee specifically charged with the subject matter of the bill or resolution; the committee to which the bill or resolution is referred shall report the bill or resolution back to the full Appropriations Committees.

(a) Favorable Report. When a committee reports a bill with the recommendation that it be passed, the bill shall be placed on the favorable calendar for the next succeeding legislative day; except that Committee Substitutes for bills shall be placed on the favorable calendar for the second next succeeding legislative day after being reported.

(b) Report Without Prejudice. When a committee reports a bill without prejudice, the bill shall be placed on the favorable calendar.

(c) Postponed Indefinitely. When a committee reports a bill with the recommendation that it be postponed indefinitely, and no minority report accompanies it, the bill shall be placed on the unfavorable calendar.

(d) Unfavorable Report. When a committee reports a bill with the recommendation that it be not passed, and no minority report accompanies it, the bill shall be placed on the unfavorable calendar.

(e) Minority Report. When a bill is reported by a committee with a recommendation that it be not passed or that it be postponed indefinitely, but it is accompanied by a minority report signed by at least one-fourth (1/4) of the members of the committee who were present and voting when the bill was considered in committee, the question before the House shall be: "The adoption of the minority report." If the minority report is adopted by majority vote, the bill shall be placed on the favorable calendar for consideration. If the minority report fails of adoption by a majority vote, the bill shall be placed on the unfavorable calendar.

RULE 37. Removing Bill from Unfavorable Calendar.—A bill may be removed from the unfavorable calendar upon motion carried by a two-thirds (2/3) vote. A motion to remove a bill from the unfavorable calendar is debatable.

RULE 38. Reports on Appropriation and Revenue Bills.—(a) All committees, other than the Committees on Appropriations, when favorably reporting any bill which carries an appropriation from the State, shall indicate same in the report, and said bill shall be referred to the Committees on Appropriations for a further report before being acted upon by the House. All committees, other than the Committee on Finance, when favorably reporting any bill which in any way or manner raises revenue, reduces revenue, levies a tax, or authorizes the issue of bonds or notes, whether public, public-local, or private, shall indicate same in the report, and said bill shall be referred to the Committee on Finance for a further report before being acted upon by the House.

(b) Action on Amendment Before Re-Referral. If any committee recommends adoption of an amendment or committee substitute of a bill which, under the rules of the House must be referred to the Committees on Appropriations or Committee on Finance, the amendment or committee substitute shall be considered and, if adopted, the amendment or substitute engrossed before the bill is re-referred.

RULE 39. Recall of Bill from Committee.—When a House bill has been introduced and referred to a committee, if after 10 legislative days the committee has failed to report thereon, then the introducer of the bill or some member designated by him may, after three legislative days' public notice given in the House and delivered in writing to the Chairman of the committee, on motion supported by a majority vote of the members present and voting, recall the same from the committee to the floor of the House for consideration and such action thereon as a majority of the members present may direct. This rule shall not be temporarily suspended without one day's notice on the motion given in the House and delivered in writing to the Chairman of the committee, and to sustain that motion two-thirds (2/3) of the members present and voting shall be required.

RULE 39.1. Recall of Bill by the Senate.—Upon a request by the Senate that a measure in the possession of the House be recalled and returned to the Senate, the question will be put 'Shall the measure be returned.' This rule will be effective only if the Senate has a substantially similar rule.

RULE 40. Calendars and Schedules of Business.—The Clerk of the House shall prepare a daily schedule of business, including the Calendar of Bills and Resolutions for consideration and debate that day, in accordance with the order of Business of the Day (Rule 5). The Clerk shall number all bills and resolutions in the order in which they are introduced. All bills and resolutions shall be taken up as they appear in each category (Rule 5(8)) in the order they were reported by committee; but the Committee on Rules and Operation of the House may at any time arrange the order of precedence in which bills may be considered.

RULE 41. Reading of Bills.—(a) Every bill shall receive three readings in the House prior to its passage. The first reading and reference to committee of a House bill shall occur on the next legislative day following its introduction. The first reading and reference to committee of a Senate bill shall occur on the next legislative day following its receipt on messages from the Senate. The Speaker shall give notice at each subsequent reading whether it be the second or third reading.

(b) No bill shall be read more than once on the same day without the concurrence of two-thirds (2/3) of the members present and voting; provided, no bill governed by Article II, Section 24 of the North Carolina Constitution or described in Rule 20 (a)(2) herein shall be read twice on one day under any circumstance.

RULE 42. Effect of a Defeated Bill.—(a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (b) of this rule, after a bill has

1. been tabled,
2. been postponed indefinitely,
3. failed to pass on any of its readings, or
4. been placed on the unfavorable calendar,

the contents of that bill or the principal provisions of its subject matter shall not be considered in any other measure originating in the Senate or originating thereafter in the House. Upon the point of order being raised and sustained by the Chair, that measure shall be laid upon the table, and shall not be taken therefrom except by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present and voting.

(b) No local bill shall be held by the Chair to embody the contents of or the principal provisions of the subject matter of any statewide measure which has been laid on the table, has failed to pass on any of its readings, or has been placed on the unfavorable calendar.

RULE 43. Amendments and Riders.—No amendment or rider to a bill before the House shall be in order unless such rider or amendment is germane to the bill under consideration.

Only one principal (first degree) amendment shall be pending at any one time. If a subsequent or substitute principal amendment shall be offered, the Speaker shall rule it out of order. However, any member desiring to offer a subsequent or substitute principal amendment in opposition to the pending amendment may inform the House by way of argument against the pending amendment that if it is defeated he proposes to offer another principal amendment, and he may then read and explain such proposed amendment.

Perfecting (or second degree) amendments may be offered and considered without limitation as to number, and in the event of multiple perfecting amendments, they shall be voted upon in inverse order.

RULE 43.1. Engrossment.—Bills and resolutions, except those making appropriations, which originate in the House and which are amended, shall be engrossed before being sent to the Senate.

RULE 43.2. House Concurrence in Senate Amendments to House Bills.—The House shall not concur in a Senate amendment to a bill originating in the House until the next legislative day after the day on which the House receives the Senate amendment.

RULE 43.3. Committee Substitutes Adopted by the Senate to Bills Originating in the House.—(a) Whenever the Senate has adopted a committee substitute for a bill originating in the House, and has returned the bill to the House for concurrence in that committee substitute, the House may not concur in that committee substitute until the next legislative day following the day on which the House receives that committee substitute.

(b) The Speaker may, and upon motion supported by a majority of the House present and voting shall, refer the bill to an appropriate committee for consideration of the committee substitute.

(c) The Speaker shall, in placing the bill on the calendar, rule whether the committee substitute is a material amendment under Article II, Section 23, of the State's Constitution. If the committee substitute was referred to committee, the committee shall:

- i. report the bill with the recommendation either that the House concur or that the House do not concur; and
- ii. advise the Speaker as to whether or not that committee substitute is a material amendment under Article II, Section 23, of the State's Constitution.

(d) If the committee substitute for a bill is not a material amendment, the question before the House shall be concurrence.

(e) If the committee substitute for a bill is a material amendment, the receiving of that bill on messages shall constitute first reading and the question before the House shall be concurrence on second reading. If the motion is passed, the question then shall be concurrence on third reading on the next legislative day.

(f) No committee substitute adopted by the Senate to a bill originating in the House may be amended by the House.

RULE 44. Conference Committees.—(a) Whenever the House shall decline or refuse to concur in amendments put by the Senate to a bill originating in the House, or shall refuse to concur in a substitute adopted by the Senate for a bill originating in the House or whenever the Senate shall decline or refuse to concur in amendments put by the House to a bill originating in the Senate, or shall refuse to concur in a substitute adopted by the House for a bill originating in the Senate, a conference committee may be appointed by the Speaker upon his own motion or shall be appointed upon request by the principal sponsor of the original bill, the chairman of the House Committee which reported the bill, or by the sponsor of the amendment in which the Senate refused to concur; and the bill under consideration shall thereupon go to and be considered by the joint conferees on the part of the House and Senate. In appointing members to conference committees the Speaker shall appoint no less than a majority of members who generally supported the House position as determined by the Speaker.

(b) Only such matters as are in difference between the two houses shall be considered by the conferees, and the conference report shall deal only with such matters. The conference report may be made by a majority of the House members of such conference committee and shall not be amended.

(c) If the conferees fail to agree, new conferees may be appointed. However, if either house refuses to adopt the report of its conferees, no new conferees may be appointed.

VII. LEGISLATIVE OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

RULE 45. Elected Officers.—(a) The House shall elect one of its members Speaker.

(b) The House shall elect one of its members Speaker pro tempore who shall perform such duties as the Speaker may assign and shall preside over the House in the absence or incapacity of the Speaker and shall perform all of the duties of the Speaker until such time the Speaker may assume the Chair.

(c) The House shall elect a Principal Clerk, a Reading Clerk and a Sergeant-at-Arms, each of whom shall have and perform such duties and responsibilities not inconsistent with these Rules as the Speaker may assign. The Principal Clerk shall continue in office until another is elected.

RULE 46. Assistants to Principal Clerk and Sergeant-at-Arms.—The Principal Clerk and the Sergeant-at-Arms may appoint, with the approval of the Speaker, such assistants as may be necessary to the efficient discharge of the duties of their respective offices.

RULE 47. Speaker's Clerk, Chaplain, and Pages.—(a) The Speaker may appoint one or more clerks to the Speaker, a Chaplain of the House, and pages to wait upon the sessions of the House.

(b) When the House is not in session, the pages shall be under the supervision of the Supervisor of Pages.

(c) No member may have more than 10 persons designated as honorary pages.

RULE 48. Committee Clerks and Secretaries.—(a) Each committee shall have a clerk. The clerk to a committee shall serve as secretary to the Chairman of that committee.

(b) Each member shall be assigned a secretary, unless he has a committee clerk to serve as his secretary.

(c) The selection and retention of clerks and secretaries shall be the sole prerogative of the individual member or members. Such clerks and secretaries shall file initial applications for employment with the Legislative Services Office and shall receive compensation as prescribed by the Legislative Services Commission. The employment period of clerks and secretaries shall commence not earlier than the convening date of the General Assembly and shall terminate not later than the final adjournment or recess of the General Assembly unless employment for an extended period is approved by the Speaker. The clerks and secretaries shall adhere to such uniform rules and regulations not inconsistent with these Rules regarding hours and other conditions of employment as the Legislative Services Commission shall fix by appropriate regulations.

RULE 49. Compensation of Clerks and Secretaries.—No clerk, laborer, or other person employed or appointed under Rules 47, 48, and 49 hereof shall receive during such employment, appointment, or service, any compensation from any department of the State government, and there shall not be voted, paid or awarded any additional pay, bonus or gratuity to any of them, but they shall receive only the pay now provided by law for such duties and services.

VIII. PRIVILEGES OF THE HALL

RULE 50. Admittance to Floor.—No person except members, officers and employees of the General Assembly and former members of the General Assembly who are not registered under the provisions of Article 9 of Chapter 120 of the General Statutes of North Carolina shall be allowed on the floor of the House during its session, unless permitted by the Speaker or otherwise provided by law.

RULE 51. Admittance of Press.—Reporters wishing to take down debates may be admitted by the Speaker, who shall assign such places to them on the floor or elsewhere, to effect this object, as shall not interfere with the convenience of the House.

RULE 52. Extending Courtesies.—Courtesies of the floor, galleries or lobby shall only be extended at the discretion of the Speaker.

RULE 53. Order in Galleries and Lobby.—In case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct in the galleries or lobby, the Speaker or other presiding officer is empowered to order the same to be cleared.

IX. GENERAL RULES

RULE 54. Attendance of Members.—No member or officer of the House shall absent himself from the service of the House without leave, unless from sickness or disability.

RULE 55. Documents to be Signed by the Speaker.—All acts, addresses, and resolutions and all warrants and subpoenas issued by order of the House shall be signed by the Speaker or other presiding officer.

RULE 56. Printing or Reproducing Materials.—There shall be no printing or reproducing of paper(s) that are not legislative in essence except upon approval of the Speaker.

RULE 57. Placement or Circulation of Materials.—Persons other than members of the General Assembly, officers or staff thereof shall not place or cause to be placed any materials on members' desks in the House Chamber without obtaining approval of the Speaker. Any material so placed, or circulated to House members anywhere in the Legislative Building, shall bear the name of the originator.

RULE 58. Rules, Rescission and Alteration.—(a) These rules shall not be permanently rescinded or altered except by House simple resolution passed by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present and voting. The introducer of the resolution must on the floor of the House give notice of his intent to introduce the resolution on the legislative day preceding its introduction.

(b) Except as otherwise provided herein, the House upon two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present and voting may temporarily suspend any rule.

RULE 59. Limitation on Cosponsorship of Bills and Resolutions.—Any member wishing to cosponsor a bill or resolution which has been introduced may do so by appearing in the office of the Principal Clerk for such purpose within one-half hour following the adjournment of the session during which such bill or resolution was first read and referred.

RULE 60. Correcting of Typographical Errors.—The Legislative Services Officer may correct typographical errors appearing in House bills or resolutions provided that such corrections are made before ratification and do not conflict with any actions or rules of the Senate and provided further that such correction be approved by the Chairman of the Rules Committee, the Speaker or other presiding officer.

RULE 61. Changing of Seats Prohibited.—After initial assignment of seats, a member shall continue to occupy the seat to which initially assigned for the entire biennial session. In event of vacancy that member's successor will occupy the seat of the member he replaces for the remainder of the biennial session, but such successor shall not be considered as one who has served in the immediate preceding session for the purposes of seat assignment in the subsequent biennial session.

RULE 62. Matters not Covered in These Rules.—Except as herein set out the rules of the House of Representatives of Congress shall govern the operation of the House.

Sec. 2. This resolution is effective upon adoption.

H. R. 40, A HOUSE RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING AN ECUMENICAL SERVICE OF WORSHIP AT DUKE UNIVERSITY ON THE OCCASION OF THE END OF CAPTIVITY FOR THE UNITED STATES HOSTAGES IN IRAN.

Whereas, the governments of the United States and of Iran have agreed to the conditions necessary for release of the 52 Americans held captive for 444 days by Iran; and

Whereas, the release of these fellow Americans is cause for thanksgiving and hope on the part of all Americans and all freedom loving peoples of the world; and

Whereas, it is appropriate that services of worship, prayers of thanksgiving and prayers of hope be offered on this historic occasion;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the House:

Section 1. That the House, in its session of January 20, 1981, hereby:

ACKNOWLEDGES the Ecumenical Service of Worship planned for Duke Chapel, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina, on Wednesday, January 21, 1981; and UNDERSTANDS that the members of the House are invited, indeed encouraged, to attend and participate in the "Service of Gratitude and Hope".

Sec. 2. This resolution is effective upon adoption.

H. R. 270, A HOUSE RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH COMMISSION TO STUDY COMMERCIAL AND SPORTS FISHERIES.

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives:

Section 1. The Legislative Research Commission may study the laws concerning commercial and sports fisheries and the powers of the Marine Fisheries Commission and the Division of Marine Fisheries of the Department of Natural Resources and Community Development. In making the study, the Commission may consider the entire Marine Fisheries licensing system, including the licenses required and fees charged for all sizes of fishing vessels.

Sec. 2. Any study committee appointed by the cochairmen of the Legislative Research Commission to make this study may, with the approval of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House, meet outside Raleigh and hold public hearings to determine the views of fishermen and others concerning any proposed changes in the laws governing commercial and sports fisheries.

Sec. 3. The Legislative Research Commission may report its findings and recommendations to the 1983 General Assembly.

Sec. 4. This resolution shall become effective July 1, 1981.

H. R. 475, A HOUSE RESOLUTION TO URGE THE PRESIDENT AND CONGRESS TO CONSIDER CAREFULLY BEFORE LIMITING MEDICAID INCREASES TO FIVE PERCENT PER YEAR.

Whereas, the budget proposals now before the Congress of the United States limit federal Medicaid increases to five percent (5%) per year in spite of the fact that Medicaid costs are rising at rates in excess of fifteen percent (15%) per year; and

Whereas, these proposals before Congress appear to be an attempt by the President of the United States to force the states to finance a greatly disproportionate share of the increasing Medicaid costs rather than to force the federal government to solve the fiscal problems it created by poor management and unmanageably cumbersome regulations; and

Whereas, North Carolina and the other states neither are permitted the flexibility to change the Medicaid program's administration so as to absorb the proposed reductions because the program's administration is virtually dictated by federal regulations nor do they have the fiscal resources to fund their greatly increased share of the costs; and

Whereas, a substantial loss of Medicaid funds means an immediate and catastrophic loss of life-supporting Medicaid services that will be borne primarily by the poor and elderly; Now, therefore, be it resolved by the House of Representatives:

Section 1. The President of the United States and the Congress are urged to consider most carefully the serious and detrimental effect that a five percent (5%) federal limit on Medicaid increases will have on North Carolina's and the other states' abilities to provide necessary life-supporting services to the poor and elderly citizens of North Carolina and the nation.

Sec. 2. The President of the United States and the Congress are urged to address the issues of cumbersome regulations and the lack of flexibility to establish innovative programs that will allow more efficient delivery of services. These issues must be resolved prior to any reduction in funding; otherwise, North Carolina and other states will be faced with the necessity of radical service reductions rather than a planned shift to more efficient methods of service delivery.

Sec. 3. This resolution is effective upon adoption.

H. R. 1336, A HOUSE RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE TO STUDY THE AVAILABILITY OF STATE-OWNED PROPERTY AND CONSTRUCTION COST OF A STATEWIDE FIRE AND RESCUE TRAINING ACADEMY.

Whereas, the General Assembly finds that volunteer fireman and volunteer rescue personnel render a valuable service to the people in this State in the protection of their persons and property; and

Whereas, the General Assembly further finds that paid fireman and paid rescue personnel render a valuable service to the people in this State in the protection of their persons and property; and

Whereas, paid and volunteer fireman and rescue personnel throughout North Carolina could render a better service to the citizens of this State if they were given the opportunity to receive more and better training at a statewide academy constructed for training purposes; and

Whereas, the need has been demonstrated for the establishment of a statewide Fire and Rescue Training Academy in order that volunteer and paid fireman and rescue personnel may receive better training to the end that such personnel may more fully develop their potential, thereby enabling them to render a better service to the public;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the House of Representatives:

Section 1. The North Carolina Department of Insurance is authorized to study and to investigate the availability of State-owned property and construction cost of a statewide Fire and Rescue Training Academy.

Sec. 2. Nothing contained in or provided for in this resolution shall be construed to require any additional appropriations of funds by the General Assembly.

Sec. 3. The North Carolina Department of Insurance shall submit its findings, including requests for appropriations, in a final report to the General Assembly not later than the convening date of the 1982 portion of the 1981 General Assembly.

Sec. 4. This resolution is effective upon adoption.

House Resolution 1336

Sec. 2. The President of the United States and the Congress shall have the right to appoint and remove the judges of the Supreme Court and the judges of the inferior courts of the United States. The President shall have the right to appoint and remove the judges of the inferior courts of the United States. The Congress shall have the right to appoint and remove the judges of the inferior courts of the United States.

Sec. 3. This resolution is effective upon adoption.

Whereas, the General Assembly finds that voluntary health and retirement plans are a valuable service to the people in this State in the protection of their persons and property; and

Whereas, the General Assembly finds that the people in this State in the protection of their persons and property; and

Whereas, the General Assembly finds that the people in this State in the protection of their persons and property; and

Whereas, the General Assembly finds that the people in this State in the protection of their persons and property; and Section 1. The North Carolina Fire and Marine Training Academy shall be established as a public institution of higher learning.

Sec. 2. The North Carolina Fire and Marine Training Academy shall be established as a public institution of higher learning.

Sec. 3. The North Carolina Fire and Marine Training Academy shall be established as a public institution of higher learning.

Sec. 4. This resolution is effective upon adoption.

PRAYERS OFFERED IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES 1981

Dr. Albert G. Edwards
House Chaplain

Wednesday, January 14, 1981

Eternal and Almighty God, whether prayer is free or re-imbursed, it is appropriate that we pause to pray for soon the members of this House will make crucial and critical promises and confirm their earnestness with an oath; an oath that commits them to dependence upon a power mightier than themselves.

To keep the promises of the day from being empty ones enable these men and women to become voices and not just echoes. Enable them to be Thy possessions rather than the possessions of the powerful and the persuasive; and being Thy possessions may they know the joy of becoming agents for the highest and the greatest good.

May the leadership of the House be not paternal nor permissive nor autocratic; rather may it be persuasive; determining worthy goals and then by example and encouragement stimulating the membership of the House to utilize their best potential to achieve worthwhile and praiseworthy goals..

O God, speak again to each one here the words of Paul to Timothy. "God has not given us the spirit of fear, but of power and love and a sound mind." (2 Timothy 1:7) Amen.

Thursday, January 15, 1981

Great God, restorer of our energies refresher of our spirits renewer of our ideas, in this pause for prayer we thank Thee for the life and service of Jack Gardner.

As sudden as was his removal from us just as suddenly wilt Thou envelop his loved ones with the companionship of Thy presence and the consolation of Thy love.

Keep all of us mindful of the uncertainty of our days, and help us not to postpone until the earthly tomorrow that may never come the message of encouragement, the word of appreciation or the deed of mercy.

In thy strong name, Amen.

Thursday Evening, January 15, 1981

Our Father, we began this day by affirming, "This is the day the Lord hath made, we will rejoice and be glad in it." Now in this evening hour we are glad to declare, "This is the night the Lord hath made." Forbid, our Father, that we sit and snooze; rather, may we sit with energy and listen attentively.

May this joint session prove the truth: "Coming together is a beginning; keeping together is progress; working together is success." Amen.

Friday, January 16, 1981

We come to Thee in prayer, our Father, because we have needs we cannot fill alone. There are burdens greater than our strength; there are decisions that require a wisdom higher than our own; there are temptations that require resistance more powerful than our own.

But coming with our needs help us to find our needed resources by remembering it is written: "And my God is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we can ask or think." Amen

Monday, January 19, 1981

We come, O God, with the hostage liberation dreams still unfulfilled but with hope still undiminished and undaunted. May the hurts of expectancy soon become the hallelujah of fulfillment.

As we think of the hostages in Iran forbid that we forget men who still may be prisoners of war in Korea and Vietnam. Give our nation knowledge of them and persistent effort to obtain their homecoming.

In this house help us to examine our own lives, and determine if we are hostage to habits, to sins, to groups, or to organizations. Help us to find the freedom that makes us indebted to none and responsible for all. Amen.

Tuesday, January 20, 1981

Dear Lord and Father of mankind, we thank Thee that we live in a nation where there can be such orderly and peaceful transition of national political leadership. Help us to remember that government does not depend solely upon the consent of the government; we acknowledge that its future lies also in your hands — the ultimate determiner of the death or endurance of all nations.

If it is true that the hostages are now airborne from Iran, grant them safe travel, good landing, and ultimate reunion with those long loved and long unseen.

In Thy great Name, Amen.

Wednesday, January 21, 1981

Sovereign God, maker and breaker of nations, determiner of our individual days, on this day officially designated as one of prayer and praise for the deliverance from bondage of our hostages in Iran, we affirm with gladness the truth of him who wrote:

"A mighty fortress is our God,
A bulwark never failing.
Our helper He, amid the flood
Of mortal ills prevailing."

As we ponder the deliverance of the hostages and their soon-to-be return to native soil and to homes and families, we exclaim with the Psalmist:

"Bless the Lord, O my soul,
And all that is within me Bless His holy name." Amen.

Thursday, January 22, 1981

We come to Thee Our Father, in the name of Him who one day asked two blind men, "What do you want me to do for you?" (Matthew 20:32) And we know you come to us today with that same offer. Although it is impossible for one spoken prayer to frame all individual requests surely, O God, a common answer to your offer of help would be the words of the Psalmist:

"Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me.
Cast me not away from Thy presence, and take not Thy Holy Spirit from me.
Restore to me the joy of thy salvation and uphold me with a willing spirit." (Psalm 51) Amen.

Friday, January 23, 1981

Father and Friend, we come to Thee recalling the plea of the Psalmist:

"O that men would praise the Lord for His goodness and His faithfulness to the children of men." (107:8)

There are many outstanding signs of Thy goodness, for which to praise Thee, and some of us even praise Thee for Thy goodness to the Tar Heels in their defeat of the Deacons.

May the men and women of this House be so favored by Thy goodness on this coming weekend at home that they will be loathe to leave yet motivated by their love for this particular labor to which they must return. Amen.

Monday, January 26, 1981

"To serve this present age,
My calling to fulfill,
O may it all my powers engage
To do my Master's will."

Readily do we recollect, our Father, the prayer petition of the poet, but the words require that we ask ourselves, "who is our master or our mistress?" As we search our minds and examine our hearts help us to remember the words of Him who said,

"No man can serve two masters; either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will despise the one and be devoted to the other."

From such devilish reality in private and public life deliver us, O God. Amen.

Tuesday, January 27, 1981

Our Father, Thou knowest those who are rejoicing because of their committee assignments. May their joy become a source of gratitude, and may thankfulness be expressed by devotion and dedication to the work sought and assigned.

Thou knowest those who are disappointed with their committee assignments. May time prove to them as it did for the Apostle Paul that oftentimes Your answers are wiser than our prayers.

We remember those who had no preferences. May their complacency be conquered, and may their deepening interests result in conviction; conviction and courage and intense involvement in Thy Strong Name. Amen.

Wednesday, January 28, 1981

Most of us, Our Father, are content to leave the length of life in Your hands; but help us to see that the width and depth and height of life are in our hands. Help the men and women of this House to develop a width of interest that encompasses that State, a depth of knowledge that helps them to apprehend if not comprehend the vital issues that they face, and a code of conduct so high that they will tower above the average in private and in public duty. Amen.

Thursday, January 29, 1981

We recall, our Father, the counsel of old:

"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart and Depend not on your own insight." Proverbs 3:6

Thou knowest full well how much the members of this House depend upon the knowledge of others. As they evaluate that knowledge grant them the insight to separate the wheat from the chaff and the worthy from the unworthy.

We seek this in Thy Holy Name. Amen.

Friday, January 30, 1981

Almighty God, the snow of the morning is a delight to some and to others it is "humbug." But isn't this true of everything and everyone? Each one of us in this House is a delight to some and a "pain-in-the-neck" to others. However, we thank Thee, our Father, that Thou dost love and care for us not because of WHAT we are but because WE ARE. Amen.

Monday, February 2, 1981

Great God, mighty yet merciful, as we come to Thee on this evening of Ground Hog Day probably there are men and women of this House who wish there were convenient holes into which to retreat, not because they see their own shadow, but because of the shadow of some approaching constituent, or lobbyist, or over-zealous proponent of some issue. But Thou dost not give us such easy retreat; however, we thank Thee that if there are no holes there are harbors; not sanctuaries for escape, but places for refueling and replenishing so that we might face all things and people in Thy strength and with Thy peace, and ever able to affirm "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble, therefore will we not fear." Amen.

Wednesday, February 4, 1981

Great God, Father and Friend, although the Apostle Paul could forbid women to speak in church (1 Cor. 11), we thank You that he could not deny women the right to speak in the Legislative Building. Thus on this day of Women's Concerns we thank You for all ladies whose presence indicates a concern for the welfare of others and themselves. May their concerns be listened to with interest and received with encouragement.

Above all, help us to remember that we pray to One who is "small enough to be concerned with our headaches and big enough to be concerned with our heartaches." Amen.

Thursday, February 5, 1981

Father and Friend, because we are human and therefore imperfect, some failures are the inevitable experiences of our days. But help us to be sufficiently sound and honest to admit that most failures happen either because we think and do not act, or else we act but do not think. Because this is so we seek from Thee the promised power to help the men and women of this House to become sound speculators and steady plodders. Amen.

Friday, February 6, 1981

Great God, whose steadfast love endures forever, another legislative week soon will be history and many of those who made it soon will be heading home. Let it be for them a weekend when the affairs of State will take second place to the affairs of family and friends and personal interests. Above all, prove anew to them that there is truth in the words of old:

"In returning and rest you shall be restored;
In quietness and confidence shall be your strength." (Isaiah 30:15)
Amen.

Monday, February 9, 1981

"The day Thou gavest, Lord, the darkness falls at Thy command." We thank Thee that to compensate for darkness there are electric lights, that for the blessing of weary bodies there are comfortable chairs, and that for the benefit of tired voices there are microphones. Above all, we thank Thee for the forgiveness of acknowledged sins of the day, the joys of the day which have become treasured memories, and that for the work of the night there is truth and vitality. Amen.

Tuesday, February 10, 1981

Father and Friend, we pause to pray because some know the tears of sorrow occasioned by their sins; some know they have burdens greater than their strength, and some have decisions to make on which they lack knowledge, and they need the intelligent guidance of others.

O God, our needs are not all alike, but all of us have need of Thee, and we pray in the name of Him who declared, "Your Heavenly Father knoweth all things ye have need of even before ye ask Him." Amen.

Wednesday, February 11, 1981

Great God, we happily and thankfully acknowledge, "Before the mountains were brought forth or ever Thou hadst formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting Thou art God."

We thank You for the heavy and steady rains of this morning. Thy word reminds us that the rain falls on the just and the unjust; grateful we are that the decision as to which is which is never ours to make but is Thine; keep us from being presumptuous and usurping power that is Thine, and Thine alone.

This one thing we do know, "without Thee we can do nothing, yet with Thee all things are possible." Keep us believing and practicing. Amen.

Thursday, February 12, 1981

Sovereign God, the same morning and afternoon, and evening and night, our prayer this day would be:

What we need to know, but do not know, please teach us;
What we do not have, but need to have, please give us;
What we are not, but need to be, please make us. Amen.

Friday, February 13, 1981

We think You, Our Father, that it is Friday — even if it is Friday the Thirteenth. Forgive those of us who still have evidences of lingering superstitions — the chestnut, the rabbit's foot, the copper chain. Help us to see that superstition is the sister of ignorance, and that superstition enters our lives by the same door through which faith in God leaves.

In Thy Holy Name, we pray, Amen.

Monday, February 16, 1981

Great God, here we are again. Some may be sad and others glad, but all of us grateful that through prayer we can acknowledge our dependence and affirm our gratitude.

As these men and women face the rigors and opportunities of another week, help them to remember that every job is a self-portrait of the person who did it. May the portraits that we self-paint this week testify that though some members of the House aren't much to brag about outwardly they are terrific persons inwardly. Amen.

Tuesday, February 17, 1981

O Sovereign God, mighty yet merciful, help us to hear again, and with Thy help, to heed the words of the prophet Micah:

"He has showed you, O man, what is good.
And what does the Lord require of you
But to do justly, to love mercy, and To walk humbly with Thy God." Amen.

Wednesday, February 18, 1981

O Thou great God, we ponder again the words of the Psalmist:

"When I consider the heavens, the work of Thy fingers, what is man that Thou art mindful of him or the son of man that Thou visitest him?"

But we know that in Thy sight we are the most valuable of all things seen and unseen.

Through all our days help us to remember that though Thou art not everything we want, Thou art everything we need. Amen.

Thursday, February 19, 1981

O God of the universe and Friend of the solitary, daily these men and women are confronted by faces, pounded by voices, and deluged with written words. Help them to remember and recall the faces they never see, the voices they never hear, and the hands that never write. The father, willing to work but without work, who faces excessive rent, increasing fuel costs, high food prices; the widow, who only by stringent self-denial can exist; the elderly who can afford only a few joys to relieve the monotony of their days; the hopelessly ill whose only care is State care.

O God, these men and women cannot make life easy and unencumbered for all people, but may all people come to see that these men and women know and love and care. Amen.

Friday, February 20, 1981

"It is a good thing to give thanks to the Lord, and to sing praises to Thy name, O most High."

Most of us, our Father, have reason to heed these words of the Psalmist, and though there be few who can acceptably sing Thy praise all of us can voice our thanks.

We thank Thee that it is Friday; We thank Thee for the Pages of the week, and may the men and women of this House thank Thee for the faithfulness, love and loyalty of wives and husbands at home. Amen.

Monday, February 23, 1981

Father in Heaven, and Friend on earth, we acknowledge that it is rich diversity of "heads" that Thou dost see. There are cool heads and clear heads, sore heads and soft heads, hard heads, hot heads and block heads. Yet, we thank Thee, that as it is in our nation, so is it in this House — there is accomplishment through diversity. May it ever be so.

And we also pray that where there isn't much "head" there will be a lot of heart. Amen.

Thursday, February 26, 1981

We thank Thee, our Father, for the seen and unseen, the known and unknown, who help make possible the work of this House.

We thank Thee for clerks and secretaries, door-keepers and paymasters, counsellors and researchers, pages and typists, and many others.

Keep us aware that "no man is an island entire of itself." Help us to admit in this House that a few owe much to many. Amen.

Friday, February 27, 1981

Father and Friend, we thank Thee that Thou hast made us to be creative, and that Thou has given to most of us the mental and physical ability to satisfy that desire.

We thank Thee that we can share the feelings of Michelangelo when he said, "It is well with me only with a chisel in my hand." As most of the members of this House lay down for another week their political tools and prepare to pick up their professional tools for weekend labor, may they also work hard to make enjoyable and wonderfully memorable their hours with families and friends.

In Thy holy name, Amen.

Monday, March 2, 1981

Eternal and Almighty God, as the men and women of this House confront another challenging and busy week, forbid that it is in the spirit of Shakespeare's Hamlet when he grumbled:

"The time is out of joint; O cursed spite
That ever I was born to set it right."

Rather, may they face this week in the spirit of the words,

"To serve this present age, my calling to fulfill,
O may it all my powers engage.
To do my Master's will." Amen.

Tuesday, March 3, 1981

Father and Friend, we thank Thee for the reminder in Thy word (Proverbs 15:17) "Better it is to eat chitlins with a friend, than caviar with an enemy." But for some of us who do not like chitlins or caviar it is a difficult choice. Yet, this is so much what life is like in this House for these men and women. Decisions to be made are not always between what is good and what is better, but oftentimes it is a choice between evils — the lesser and the greater.

In all such times grant them wisdom, grant them courage. Amen.

Wednesday, March 4, 1981

Father and Friend, all of us have our particular strengths and our particular weaknesses. Help us to know our strengths that we may be confident; help us to recognize our weaknesses that we may be alert and invulnerable.

May our strengths help us to be gentle and grateful; may our weaknesses keep us humble and forgiving.

In Thy strong Name, Amen.

Thursday, March 5, 1981

Our Father, Thou has made us to love and to be loved, but help us to see that we cannot be popular with everyone. When we cannot be loved help us to be respected.

As the men and women of this House assess their lives may they know that at least they are loved by a mate at home, their children, their neighbors, the family dog and the neighbor's cat. If so loved then may they know they are rich. Amen.

Friday, March 6, 1981

Father and Friend, on whom always we are dependable and to whom always we are accountable, may those who have "lived it up" this week in Raleigh not leave their life and vitality in Raleigh; may they take it with them to their homes and "live it up" with their families.

May those for whom the week has been dead and dull, find new life breathed into them this weekend through family, synagogue or church. And thus may all return on Monday refreshed and renewed for the responsibilities of and opportunities of another week.

In Thy Holy Name, Amen.

Monday, March 9, 1981

Eternal God, the Redeemer of those who trust Thee and the Rewarder of those who serve Thee, surely there are those in the House who wish the prayer could be, "Now I lay me down to sleep", but our prayer must be and is, "Now I get me back to work, I pray Thee, Lord, I may not shirk".

In Thy Strong Name, Amen.

Tuesday, March 10, 1981

Almighty God, in whose army the best soldiers always are wounded soldiers, as the members of this House find themselves criticized as well as commended, denounced as well as praised, help them to recall the words of wisdom: "Before God can use a man greatly, He must often wound him deeply." Amen.

Wednesday, March 11, 1981

Father and Friend, there came to mind the familiar words:

"Not my brother, not my sister,
But it's me, O Lord,
Standing in the need of prayer."

And in this pause for prayer as we remember the sins of the past, enable us to recall that it is written in Thy word:

"When we confess our sins, Thou art faithful and just to forgive our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

But we recollect not only the past, we consider the future with its possible trials and tests, and as we do may our encouragement to the words: "Greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world." Amen.

Thursday, March 12, 1981

Sovereign God, we thank Thee that for our salvation Thou didst take the initiative — demonstrating Your love for us before we first loved Thee. Inspired by such an example enable many in this House to take the initiative to create sincere friendships, express forgiveness, and maintain harmony in the midst of diversity. As we struggle so to live, encourage us by reminding us that when we drive at night the one who is the first to dim the headlights usually is the better person. Amen.

Friday, March 13, 1981

O matchless and Almighty God as we enjoy the warmth and beauty of this sun drenched morning, we gladly echo the words of the poet:

"New every morning is the love
Our wakening and uprising prove;
Thru sleep and darkness safely brought Restored to life and power and thought."

Forbid, O God, that Thy gifts of life and power and thought should be lost on this crowd. Amen.

Monday, March 16, 1981

Father and Friend, we come to Thee in the name of Him of whom it is written:

"And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and with man."

O God, most seek favor with man, but not all seek favor with Thee. Grant to the men and women of this House that constant integrity which will keep them in Thy favor, and that reliable friendship which will keep them in favor with each other. Amen.

Tuesday, March 17, 1981

O Divine Redeemer, on this day of leprechauns and shamrocks we are prone to offer as our prayer the words of old:

"May the road rise up to meet us.
May the wind be at our backs,
May the sun shine warm upon our faces,
And may the rain fall soft upon our fields."

This is what we want, our Father, but it is not always what we need. Oftimes we need the challenge of a stiff climb, the bracing winds upon the face, the darkness in which alone we can see the stars, and rain that is a downpour and a gully washer.

We know, our Father, that You will give us what we need rather than what we want. Amen.

Wednesday, March 18, 1981

Father and Friend, we recall the words of one who said, "If a man is a believer his dog and his cat ought to be the better for it." O God, if our relationship to Thee influences our relationship to animals, surely much more should it beneficially influence our human relations. May our relationships with family, friends and colleagues ever indicate that it does. Amen.

Thursday, March 19, 1981

Great God, source of life and author of our salvation, although there may be days when no verbal battles are fought on the floor of this House, well do we know that there is never a day when we do not fight battles within ourselves.

The battle for truth over falsehoods, integrity over self-protection, humility over false pride, righteousness over evil.

When we are so engaged we ask, who is sufficient for these things? By ourselves, the answer is, no. With Thee, we know the answer is yes. In that latter faith, help us to walk. Amen.

Monday, March 23, 1981

We acknowledge with gratitude, our Father, the snow and rain of this past week. Although it was hindrance and hazardous to some, to many it was a needed and rich blessing.

O God, as these men and women of the House face the issues of another week, help them to remember that there is no right way to do the wrong thing, and that there are many wrong ways to do the right thing. As they seek to find the right way to achieve the right end, encourage them with the recollection of the eternal promise:

"Ask, and it shall be given you, seek, and ye shall find, knock and it shall be opened." Amen.

Tuesday, March 24, 1981

O Gracious God, because there is within all of us a bias to evil, and some of us are more biased than others, there never is a day when we do not need to pray, "God be merciful to me, a sinner."

Since Thou hast given to each member of this House a good measure of intelligence and ability, help each one so to use these developed endowments, that less and less will they need to pray, "God be merciful to me, a stupid fool." Amen.

Wednesday, March 25, 1981

There are days, Our Father, when we wish the words of the Psalmist could be fulfilled in our lives: "O that I had wings like a dove, then would I fly away." Some seek flight to escape the heavy and constant demands of committee; others seek flight from the boredom of the days and the dullness of the hours; and still others seek flight because "there's no place like home." But Thou hast made us, our Father, to fight rather than to flee, so when the yearning for escape is great temptation help us to find our fortitude in the ancient assurance: "Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee." Amen.

Thursday, March 26, 1981

O God of earth and sky and sea and all who dwell under and therein as we ponder seas that erode our coastline and rain that erodes our forest and farmland, help us also to be aware of the petty evils that erode our characters — the half truths, the compromise, and the broken promises.

Great God, all of us have our flaws, and there are cracks in what should be solid character. Help us so to live that we fill in the cracks rather than widen them and lengthen. We ask it in Thy Holy Name, Amen.

Friday, March 27, 1981

Our Father, you know there was much said yesterday about snakes and comparative fault. When some of us think of snakes we recall Eve and Adam. O God, how interesting it would be to know the degree of fault assigned to the snake, and to Eve and to Adam. We recognize there will be no answer to that prayer, but we earnestly pray that the results of comparative fault will be kinder to us than the collective faults of the snake, and Eve and Adam. O God, when we sin as they sinned, help us to remember the promise: "There is forgiveness with Thee that Thou mayest be feared." Help us to remember that promised forgiveness, and remind us also of its immense cost. Amen.

Monday, March 30, 1981

O Sovereign God, who this day hast made the rain to fall and the sun to shine, we unite our hearts in prayer distressed by inexplicable human behaviour that has brought bodily injury to our nation's President and to those surrounding him.

We pray for those injured by man's wild behaviour, and grateful we are that whether a man be President or policeman, he is one of your children and that Thou hast the same love for both. May the skill of surgeons, the miracle of medicines and experienced nursing care be the channels through which the injured will be restored to health and strength.

As on this day the sunshine has followed the rain, so in the hours to come of this evening may there be light in our darkness as the Carolina basketball team plays in a way equal to its ability. May each team reflect the best results of ability, training and experience and thereby the victor deserve the honor.

So may Thy presence use the hands of surgeons and the hands of the basketball players to make the day's midnight much brighter than its mid-day. Amen.

Tuesday, March 31, 1981.

O Sovereign God, forbid that yesterday's wanton behaviour by one man should condemn all American mankind. Forbid that one evil act shall destroy the good reputation of our nation. Help us to see that for every one who hates there are millions who respect; help us to see that for every act of evil consequence there are thousands of deeds unselfish and laudable. Forbid that the events of yesterday will result in desolation that destroys our hope and the desperation that results in hasty laws that hamper and never help. In the midst of the evil perpetrated by the minority, help the good, that is the majority, to remember that there is not enough darkness in all the world to hide the light of one small candle. Amen.

Wednesday, April 1, 1981

Father and Friend, as we greet Thee on this April Fools Day, help us to remember the words: "Every person is a fool; it is simply a matter of choosing what kind of a fool to be." Because this is so, keep us from being witless fools, heedless fools, thoughtless fools, and another kind of fool we will not call by name.

Because there is a choice, help the men and women of this House so to become involved that it will be said about them, "they are fools about good politics." Amen.

Friday, April 3, 1981

"The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof, the world and those who dwell therein."

Grant, our Father, that these familiar words of the Psalmist (24:1) will ever remind us that Thine we are, and all we have comes from Thee. Forbid that the cataracts of selfishness and thoughtlessness should blind the eyes of our minds to the eternal truth that thoughtfulness and remembrance are the soil in which thankfulness grows.

In Thy Holy Name, we pray. Amen.

Monday, April 6, 1981

We thank You, God, that You have returned the members of this House for another week of deliberation, discussion and decision.

In all they do this week may they demonstrate that each possesses an abundant measure of God-sense, common sense, horse-sense, and nonsense. Amen.

Tuesday, April 7, 1981

Father and Friend, when we come to Thee in prayer help us to remember that we come in the name of Him who spent most of his adult years earning a living as a carpenter. We recognize that His work did not always bring to Him the joy of being innovative and creative; there were the dull tasks of repairing the broken and restoring the abused. So may it be that when the men and women of this House know the weariness of dealing with a multitude of local bills keep them from feeling they are "prisoners of the unimportant". May they remember Him who brought His best to all work because it was for the benefit and blessing of God's greatest creation — people. Amen.

Wednesday, April 8, 1981

Almighty God, in days when meetings are many, demands on time are heavy, and wise decisions are difficult, may there be remembrance by the men and women of this House of the words of the Apostle Paul; "In nothing be anxious, but in everything, by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God, and my God shall supply all your needs according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus, and the peace of God which passeth all understanding shall garrison your heart and your mind." Amen.

Thursday, April 9, 1981

Father and Friend, in all our deliberations, when we are wrong help us to be willing and ready to change, when we are right keep us humble and easy to live with, but when we are undecided help us to see that a double-minded person is like an alcoholic driving on our highways; no one knows what lane he will occupy and he is therefore a menace to himself and to many others. From such possible damage to ourselves and to others, may Thy Spirit of understanding and wisdom deliver us.

In Thy Holy Name, Amen.

Friday, April 10, 1981

Almighty God, because of the beauty of this day we thank You for eyes with which to see. The privilege of sight which makes possible the enjoyment of the indescribable Spring beauty that surrounds us; the privilege of sight which enables us to read both the good and the bad.

But not all things, our Father, are as they seem to be, and so in the midst of thanks for sight we pray for insight. Give to the members of this House the insight to discern their brother's good as well as their own; to see the ultimate consequences of their votes as well as the immediate; to regard citizens of districts, other than their own, not as foreigners but as brothers; and the insight to know when and how wisely to weigh justice and mercy.

In Thy Holy Name, Amen.

Tuesday, April 14, 1981

O Sovereign God, we come with great and glad thanksgiving for the safe return to Mother Earth of the occupants of the space shuttle and the shuttle itself. We thank Thee for the testimonial that such success is to the ingenuity of man.

We recognize that such scientific accomplishments are immensely costly, but ultimately may there be benefits which will benefit all mankind.

May one of the present day lessons of the space age be the accepted truth that "patience is the ability to count down before we blast off." Amen.

Wednesday, April 15, 1981

Father and Friend, we are hearing much about foxes this session, and this may be a Biblical concern for we recall the Old Testament words: (Song of Songs 2:5):

"Catch us the foxes, the little foxes that spoil the vineyards for our vineyards are in blossom."

But we are also mindful, Lord, of the "little foxes" in our own lives which are destructive — the littleness, pettiness, meanness, jealousies, envy, and crabbiness. We can't kill or eradicate these "little foxes" but with Thy strong help may we control them. Amen.

Thursday, April 16, 1981.

O King of Kings and Lord of Lords, we pray that the memory of victory over the South Carolina House basketball team will be linament for sore muscles, and that the recollection of the joy of the evening and early morning will be refreshment for weary bodies. May those House members who did not go make issues so lively and interesting this afternoon that weary eyes will remain wide open and sore and tired bodies will enjoy comfortable chairs. For the physical comforts that this House Chamber affords, may there be members who are more grateful than ever before. Amen.

Friday, April 17, 1981

Truly this is a day, our Father, when memory reminds us that deeds have stronger power than words. We thank Thee for this Good Friday which speaks to the immense heights of love and the terrible depth of sin. As we live this day under the shadow of Calvary's Cross, help us to see love that encompasses even those of us who are the most unloveable, and to see a grace that is greater than all our sin. From such remembrances and experiences may there come our peace and joy. Amen.

Tuesday, April 21, 1981

Father and Friend, for all of us there is "a time to be born and a time to die", however, it is the interval between that is so important.

As these men and women spend some of the adult years of this interval in service to the citizens of their State help all of us to remember that the gift of time is a precious possession. As we seek to use wisely and well this gift that is the same for all, may we help each other be "savers" by remembering that "how are you" is not so much a question that needs a lengthy answer, but a greeting that needs but brief acknowledgment.

In Thy Holy Name, we pray, Amen.

Wednesday, April 22, 1981

O Gracious God, when the men and women of the House become tense and tired, and they want to bite somebody's head off, help them to bite their lips, and then may bloody lips become the sign of beautiful self-control.

In Thy Holy Name, Amen.

Thursday, April 23, 1981

Father and Friend, when the problems seem immense and decisions are difficult may the members of the House recall that their resource of strength and wisdom is He who has the whole world in His hands and on His hands. May they know that Thou wilt make them adequate for all challenges and difficulties.

When the time is boring and the issues tedious help the members of the House to recall the people whose needs they are endeavoring to meet, and the God who they are attempting to serve, and be cheerful. Amen.

Friday, April 24, 1981

Our Father and Friend, much was said yesterday about "Thou shall not steal in daylight", and it makes us ponder what would happen if there was a mandatory prison sentence for preachers and politicians whose verbosity steals from others the precious gift of time. When members rise to defend or deplore a bill, keep them from being guilty of needlessly robbing others of Your great good gift of time. Amen.

Monday, April 27, 1981

Father and Friend, we come to Thee in the name of Him who is Bread for the hungers of life and Water for the thirsts of life. At the beginning of another Legislative week our prayer for the members of this House is that the only weariness they will know is that healthy tiredness which comes from worthwhile work well done; the only fear they will know is the fear of knowing what is right and failing to do it; and the joy they will know will be the thrill of doing right in the face of a deep desire to do wrong. Amen.

Tuesday, April 28, 1981

Father and Friend, when others cry, "Wolf", help the men and women of this House to make sure there is a wolf before they start screaming too.

When others yell, "fire", help the members of this House to think and not to panic, lest in panic they lose not only their heads but also their political lives.

When others cry, "help", and help is honestly needed, may there be hearty response even when there is knowledge of the personal cost and sacrifice involved.

We pray in the name of Him who knew the cost but was not deterred by it, Amen.

Friday, May 1, 1981

Father and Friend, we may be created equal, but undoubtedly we are not equally endowed. Indeed, some of us believe that Heaven's supplies were running low the day we were brought into being. But unequal distribution probably is wise since it would not do to have too many Muhammed Ali's and Howard Cosell's. But help us who are not so endowed in body and mind to know that we can match them in spirit. Help those of us who may be impoverished in body and mind to say with Noah in "Green Pastures" — "I'se ain't much but I'se all I got." Amen.

Tuesday, May 5, 1981

Father and Friend, we are a "mixed bag" in this House—black and white, Jew and Gentile, Republican and Democrat, female and male, quiet and garulous. And well we know that where there are such differences, it is so easy to despise and belittle the persons who are different.

Help us to see how fortunate it is we are not all alike nor do we think alike. Truly our prayer is that when we are tempted to scorn and ridicule Thou wilt lead us away from temptation into understanding and love.

In Thy Holy Name, Amen.

Wednesday, May 6, 1981

Gracious God, we come to Thee in the name of Him who confronted the challenging task of keeping the law and helping people; we recall His words, "I came not to destroy the law but to fulfill it." He lived among leaders who only had an eye for the law they had sworn to keep, and who had no eye for the people they had promised to help. As Jesus contemplated both law and people and knew how to be responsible to both, so also may the members of this House have an eye for both, and thus may their actions reflect wisdom and love. Amen.

Thursday, May 7, 1981

Gracious God, how true are the words, "We are fearfully and wonderfully made." We are even more aware of this truth when we consider that the member of the body which works the hardest, never grows tired and never wears out is the tongue. Help us to remember that it is also written in Thy word: "He who can control his tongue can bridle the whole body." With Thy help may we practice as well as preach that truth. Amen.

Monday, May 11, 1981

Father and Friend, we thank You that You are not looking for extraordinary people, but that You are looking for ordinary people through whom to do things extraordinarily well.

When we forget this, help us to remember that a lad who gave you all he had—five loaves and two fish. It was only an ordinary lunch, but when You got through with it, that lunch became a picnic for the lad and four thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine others.

Help us then to remember that in Your hands the ordinary becomes the extraordinary. Amen.

Tuesday, May 12, 1981

Father and Friend, there is a lot of Adam in most of us men, and I expect there is much of Eve in most of the women. We don't always have sound reason for our actions, but we have plenty of excuses.

Help us to remember what oftentimes is said: "People who are good at making excuses seldom are good at anything else."

In Thy Strong Name, Amen.

Thursday, May 14, 1981

Gracious God, Thou who art as essential to our lives as bread and water, help us to know the joy which comes from being in love with what we have to do. Whether it be preaching or politicking, passing laws or parliamentary procedures, complimenting or chiding, help us to love it, and to manifest the enthusiasm such love engenders.

Be with any in the House who may not enjoy being here, and help them to find the niche in life with which they can fall in love.

In Thy Holy Name, Amen.

Friday, May 15, 1981

We come to Thee, our Father, in the name of Him who is the Road, the Road Map and the ultimate Destination of each one of us.

As the members of the House use the highways and roads of our State to journey home, may the relationships that await them at their ultimate destination prove again that "a good scare often is worth more than good advice." Amen.

Monday, May 18, 1981

Great God, who came not to condemn us but to save us, not to restrict us but to set us free, Thou knowest how often we fail, not because we try and fail, but because we fear failure and do not try. When there is hesitation, bring to mind the words of him who said, "Be bold, and mighty forces will come to your aid." When we doubt if that is so, help us to remember David and Goliath.

In Thy Holy Name, Amen.

Tuesday, May 19, 1981

God of grace and glory, Thou knowest the questions that always trouble us:

Why cast bread on water when so often it comes back soggy?

Why be good when "good guys" often finish last?

Why lend a helping hand when there are more people who will bite it rather than shake it?

Why turn the other cheek and live with two broken jaws rather than one?

And the answer we know Lord, is self-respect. We have to live with ourselves and we want to look at ourselves without shame or embarrassment.

Help us, Lord, at all costs, to keep that self-respect. Amen.

Wednesday, May 20, 1981

We thank Thee, our Father, that Thou hast given us faith which "is not a puzzle to be solved but a life to be lived."

We thank Thee for the clouds and the rain, and the day's refreshment of the parched.

However, grant that our moods and dispositions shall not match the day. Dispel the gloom that may infest the lives of some, and may good cheer, thoughtfulness, understanding and hard work bless and brighten the atmosphere of this House.

In Thy Holy Name, Amen.

Thursday, May 21, 1981

"For the beauty of the earth,
For the glory of the skies,
For the love which from our birth,
Over and around us lies,
Lord of all to Thee we raise
These our words of grateful praise." Amen.

Friday, May 22, 1981

Father and Friend, grant us the wisdom to see that power and position do not make a person great, but that they only give us an opportunity to be great. Help us to see that greatness is position and power dedicated to the service of those whose only power is the ballot box of our State.

In Thy Strong Name, Amen.

Monday, May 25, 1981

Our Father and Friend, we come to Thee in the name of Him who was tested as all people are. We thank Thee that when he was ridiculed and reviled he did not retaliate.

So may it be, our Father, that when we are tempted to kick and scream, and cuss and fuss; when we are irritated and people get on our nerves, may we remember Him who prayed even for those who nailed Him to the Cross. Amen.

Tuesday, May 26, 1981

Great God, thou whose promises always are fulfilled, we thank Thee for the encouraging words, "I am with Thee always, in all times and at all places."

When we are perplexed and doubt how this can be, help us to remember that You perform even the biologically impossible to assure that Your word is Your bond—a child born to Sara in her very late years in life; a son born to a virgin. May such remembrance strengthen our confidence and increase our faith. Amen.

Wednesday, May 27, 1981

Dear God, how satisfying it is to realize that there is something of the preacher in the layman as well as the reverend; we do enjoy elaborating and elongating. It is reasonable to expect, our Father, that some issues require more detailed explanations than do others, but help us to remember that there are still words such as "yes" and "no".

Above all, in a world of change help us to remember that what is changeless is that "life is short".

Friday, May 29, 1981

Thou knowest, our Father, as well as do the members of this House that one of the great penalties of political office is absence from families. When the members of this House return to their households this weekend may they not be such strangers that a dog growls and the children ask, "Who is that stranger in the kitchen?"

As they make time for the enjoyment of family, may the House members also make time to find spiritual pepto-bismol for churning stomachs, some spiritual valium for peace of mind, and some spiritual listerine for bad breath. Amen.

Monday, June 1, 1981

Father and Friend, we recall the words of the Psalmist:

"I had fainted unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living." (27:13)

As these members of this House face another week may they carry with them the memory of some weekend experience of Thy goodness:

family and friends;
an adoring child;
an appreciative citizen;
a grateful dog;
a seascape or a landscape;

Whatever the remembered token of Thy goodness, may its recollection be a restorative blessing during the long hours and days of this week.

In Christ's name we pray, Amen.

Tuesday, June 2, 1981

O Lord and Master of us all, whether we acknowledge or deny the relationship, each of us has strengths and weaknesses.

Help us to see that knowing and remembering what they are makes us strong, forgetting what they are makes us vulnerable.

In Thy Strong Names, Amen.

Wednesday, June 3, 1981

"This is my Father's world,
The birds their carols raise,
The morning light, the lily white,
Declare their Maker's praise." (Babcock)

This afternoon, our Father, may the words and conduct of the members of this House, whether they represent agreement or disagreement, declare their Maker's praise. Amen.

Thursday, June 4, 1981

O God most Holy, O Lord most loving, we come to Thee in the name of Him who truly is Your "Right Hand Man." We thank You that it is said of Him, "He holds the whole world in His hands."

We also thank You that of this man it can be truly said by each one of us, "He walks with me, and He talks with me, and He tells me I am His own."

From such assurance may there come our peace and strength. Amen.

Monday, June 8, 1981

Great God, Creator and Sustainer, we thank You for the loan of time. Help us to remember there is a time to speak and a time for silence. When we are silent, help us to be good listeners.

We thank You for the gift of the mind. May our use indicate that we have not leased it out to other people or to other interests. We thank you for the loan of the body. Help us to remember that if some of us exercised our bodies as much as we exercise our tongues we would not have to lie about our age.

In the name of the Endless and Ageless, we pray, Amen.

Tuesday, June 9, 1981

Father and Friend, if what we read in the papers is correct, some of the members of the House are running out of strength and wisdom before they run out of problems. For those in this predicament may there be encouragement and renewal by recalling the words of old: "Let those who lack wisdom ask of God who giveth to all men liberally, and regretteth it not."

In Thy Holy Name, we pray, Amen.

Wednesday, June 10, 1981

O Gracious God, oftentimes it is said of women, "You have come a long way, baby." But surely it is also true of this House, our Father. Are there not those among us who know what it would be like to meet in the House chamber of the Capitol on a muggy day such as this? Here we are assembled in the comfort of air conditioning, ample space, comfortable chairs and architectural beauty.

Lord, if there is to be any afflicting of the comfortable it will have to come from each other. According to Thy will may Thy tormentors and afflictors rise up and do well their appointed tasks. Amen.

Friday, June 12, 1981

Merciful God, Thou who dost make the rain to fall on the just and the unjust, we thank Thee that the decision as to which is which is Thine to make and not ours.

But there are days, Lord, when figuratively it doesn't just rain—it pours; days when we encounter not one trouble but seas of them. In such times help us to recall the ancient invitation, "Cast thy burdens upon the Lord and He shall sustain thee."

Help us also to remember that if there were no rain there would be no rainbows. Amen.

Wednesday, June 17, 1981

Merciful God, we thank Thee that Thou dost speak to us through the poet as well as the prophet. Help us to recall this day the lines of him who wrote,

"Four things a man must learn to do,
If he would keep his record true.
To think, without confusion clearly;
To love his fellow men sincerely;
To act from honest motives purely;
To trust in God and Heaven securely." (Van Dyke)

In Thy Holy Name we pray, Amen.

Thursday, June 18, 1981

Sovereign God, Thou who dost hear the spoken word and who art responsive to the unaltered longings of the heart, we readily recognize that highways are the arteries of civilizations. As these men and women strive for ways to maintain, and extend the arteries of our State be with them in all deliberations. May they remember that they too have arteries, and may the discussion indicate that they are not the victims of arteriosclerosis.

In Thy Holy Name, Amen.

Friday, June 19, 1981

Father and Friend, most of us do few things well and many things badly. Some of us fall short of being what we ought to be as parents, counselors, husbands or wives, and even legislators and ministers. But rather than avoiding or neglecting the things we do badly, help us to enjoy doing what we do poorly and then know the joy of self-abandonment and forgetfulness.

In Thy Holy Name, Amen.

Monday, June 22, 1981

Sovereign God, without whom we are so inadequate and with whom we are invincible, as the members of the House face another week our prayers would be that there will be enough work to keep them challenged and enough leisure to keep them composed; enough verbal battles to keep them alert, and enough routine business to give them opportunity to doze; enough victories to keep them hopeful and enough failures to keep them humble.

In Thy strong Name, we pray, Amen.

Tuesday, June 23, 1981

Father and Friend, Thou who are the answer to the guilt of yesterday, the concerns of today, and the fears of tomorrow, help us to remember there is more to life than work and worry. May we heed the words of him who wrote:

"You gonna find the way to Heaven
A rough and rocky road
If you don't stop and smell the roses
Along the way." (Mac Davis)

You have provided roses, the pleasurable times, our Father, help us to enjoy them. Amen.

Wednesday, June 24, 1981

Almighty God, Thou whose mercies are new in the morning, fresh in the evening, and adequate for the afternoon, help us to lay to heart the words of him who said, "You can always tell when you are on the road to righteousness, because it is uphill all the way."

In God's Holy Name, Amen.

Thursday, June 25, 1981

Matchless and Almighty God, there is no one who can compare this House to a symphony where all members play in harmony. In the midst of disagreement and dissent, help us to remember that dissent is one of the roots which keep democracy strong and enduring.

When there is dissent may those who disagree be appreciative of those whose viewpoint differs, and always may there be opposition without malice.

We pray in the name of Him who was opposed and offended but who never became odious. Amen.

Friday, June 26, 1981

God of grace and God of glory, it is true of life and especially true of legislation—"Everything put together falls apart sooner or later." But for durability, help us to remember the counsel of Him who has reminded us that when we build upon the foundation of His word, the rains fall, the floods come, and wind blows and beats upon that structure, but it does not collapse. May obedience to Thy word and will give strength and endurance to all issues that ultimately become law. Amen.

Monday, June 29, 1981

Sovereign God, we come to Thee in the name of Him who came not only to plant but to prune.

May He take from our eyes the cataracts which blur our vision so that we see no further than ourselves; cut from our lives the cancer of selfishness which makes us quick to gain and slow to give; mend our broken imaginations that make us insensitive to what others suffer.

In Thy Holy Name, Amen.

Tuesday, June 30, 1981

We thank You, our Father, that time cannot erase Thy promises, nor can circumstances dim them, nor can legislatures nullify them. We, Thy people, are their only enemies; by our neglect we can ignore them, but always to our hurt. May we give Thee opportunity to prove the words of Isaiah (30:15): In returning and rest you shall be saved; in quietness and confidence shall be your strength." Amen.

Thursday, July 2, 1981

Great God, every day all of us face people. People who are for us and people who are against us; people who love us and people who hate us. For the men and women of this House grant that their principles may have such Godly foundations that when they face those who disagree with them and dislike them, they will be able to do so unashamed and unafraid; they will be able to speak with the quietness and assurance born of the inner assurance that what they did is right; and when the relationship is really strained may they remember Thy word: "If ye love only them that love you, that is not to your credit." With the divine help that makes the seeming impossible possible, help them to love the spiteful and the unlovely. Amen.

Friday, July 3, 1981

Almighty God, there are many things in life that are easy to do.
It is easy to tell people how to spend THEIR money;
It is easy to know what to do when I don't have to do it;
It is easy to tell others how to vote when I don't have to vote;
It is easy to make decisions when the responsibility for the decision is not mine.

The men and women of this House, our Father, do have to decide and must vote and must be responsible. Through all such mental anguish and ordeal help them to remember the ancient promise: "Be strong and of good courage, for the Lord thy God is with Thee whithersoever thou goest."

In Thy strong Name, we pray, Amen.

Prayer by Representative Bundy

March 20, 1981

For all that God in mercy sends, for health and home, family and friends, our Heavenly Father, we give thee thanks. We are grateful for all Thy mercies and blessings, for all that is good and pure, for all that is holy and righteous. Fill us, our Heavenly Father, with a sense of responsibility and accountability. Give us a deep sense of gratitude. Make us ever mindful of the needs of others. Guide us in our thoughts and direct us in our actions so that all we do will be pleasing in Thy sight. Amen.

ADDENDUM

It will be noted that a number of bills and resolutions passed second reading and then were read a third time on the same day.

Rule 41(b) states:

No bill shall be read more than once in the same day without the concurrence of two-thirds (2/3) of the members present and voting.

In order to comply with this Rule, no bill which has passed its second reading is read a third time except:

- (1) When a member moves that the Rule be suspended, and this motion carries by at least a two-thirds vote of the members present.
- (2) When the Chair determines that there is no objection from any member present. This constitutes unanimous consent of those members present that Rule 41(b) be suspended.

In these cases, the bill is read a third time.

HOUSE JOURNAL

EXTRA SESSION 1981

FIRST DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, October 5, 1981

In accordance with law, as set forth in the Constitution of the State of North Carolina, and pursuant to the Joint Proclamation issued September 17, 1981, upon the receipt of written requests of three-fifths of all the members of the House of Representatives and the Senate, the House of Representatives of the North Carolina General Assembly convenes in Extra Session at the hour of 10:00 a.m. in the House Chamber of the State Legislative Building in the City of Raleigh, and is called to order by the Speaker.

Prayer is offered by Dr. Albert G. Edwards, House Chaplain.

The Speaker orders the Reading Clerk to read the following Joint Proclamation:

JOINT PROCLAMATION TO CONVENE THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA IN EXTRA SESSION

WHEREAS, Article II, Section 11(2) of the Constitution of North Carolina authorizes and requires the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate to convene the General Assembly in extra session by joint proclamation upon receipt of written requests signed by three-fifths of all members of the House of Representatives and the Senate, and

WHEREAS, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives has each received written requests from three-fifths of all the members of the House of Representatives and the Senate,

NOW, THEREFORE, the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate do hereby proclaim that the General Assembly of North Carolina shall convene in extra session in the City of Raleigh, North Carolina in the State Legislative Building at 10:00 o'clock a.m. on Monday, October 5, 1981 to consider bills directly affecting the State budget, bills concerning the organization or operation of the extra session, bills relating to pensions and retirement matters, and local bills relating to redistricting for boards having tax levying authority or concerning the sale and disposition of property.

A copy of this Proclamation shall be delivered to each member of the House of Representatives, and the Senate, and a copy to the Governor of North Carolina and the Secretary of State.

Issued this the 17th day of September, 1981.

S/ JAMES C. GREEN
President of the Senate

S / LISTON B. RAMSEY
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Speaker makes the following statement:

"After having received 114 requests from House members to call an Extra Session and after having heard from the Lieutenant Governor that he had received 46 requests, the Lieutenant Governor and I issued a proclamation calling for this Extra Session. Each of you should have received a copy of this proclamation in the mail. These written requests are on file in the Principal Clerk's office and shall be retained there for a period of two years and then forwarded to Archives and History. We shall, therefore, proceed by amending Resolution 66 of the 1981 Session to proceed for a Second Session to convene October 5, 1981 at 11:05 a.m. We shall then adjourn the Extra Session sine die. Then at the hour appointed, 11:05 a.m., we shall reconvene the 1981 General Assembly into a Second Session for the purposes set forth in Resolution 66."

In order to establish a quorum, the Speaker directs an electronic call of the roll of the House members and the following Representatives are recorded as present:

Representatives Adams, Allran, Almond, Barbee, Barker, Barnes, Beam, Beard, Bell, Black, Blue, Bone, Brannan, Brawley, Brennan, Brown, Brubaker, Bundy, Burnley, Chapin, Church, D. Clark, Coble, Cochrane, Cook, Craven, Crawford, Creecy, Diamont, Easterling, Economos, Edwards, Ellis, Enloe, Bob Etheridge, Bruce Ethridge, Fenner, Foster, Fulcher, Fussell, Gay, Gillam, Grady, Greenwood, Guy, Hackney, Harrison, Haworth, Hayden, Hege, Helms, Hiatt, Hightower, Holmes, B. Holt, C. Hughes, J. Hughes, J. Hunt, P. Hunt, R. Hunter, Huskins, Hux, James, Jones, Kaplan, Keesee, Lacey, Lancaster, Ligon, Lilley, Lutz, McAlister, McDowell, Mauney, Mavretic, Messer, Miller, Morgan, Musselwhite, Nash, Nesbitt, Nye, Parnell, Payne, Plyler, Poovey, Pulley, Quinn, Rabon, Radford, Redding, F. Rhodes, T. Rhodes, Robinson, Seymour, Spaulding, Stamey, Tally, Taylor, Tennille, Thomas, Tison, Tyson, Warren, Watkins, Wicker, and Woodard — 107.

On motion of Representative J. Hunt, the permanent Rules of the 1981 Regular Session of the House of Representatives are adopted as permanent Rules of the 1981 Extra Session.

The Speaker announces that standing and select committees for the 1981 Regular Session remain in effect for the 1981 Extra Session.

The Speaker orders a Special Message sent to the Senate informing that Honorable Body that the House of Representatives is organized and is ready to proceed with the public business.

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

SENATE CHAMBER
October 5, 1981

Mr. Speaker:

It is ordered that a message be sent your Honorable Body with the information that the Senate is convened under the legislative call issued September 17, 1981, organized, and is now ready to proceed with the public business of this Extra Session of the 1981 General Assembly.

Respectfully,
S/ SYLVIA M. FINK
Principal Clerk

The Speaker makes the following additional remarks:

"To avoid any doubt as to the validity of this Extra Session, we have adopted rules and announced committee appointments. Your Officers' terms and your terms are for two years; therefore, an election of these positions is not necessary."

The Speaker announces the resignation of Mary N. Pegg of the 29th House District and the appointment of Frank E. Rhodes as her replacement.

On August 27, 1981 the following Commission was issued to Frank E. Rhodes as a member of the House of Representatives by Governor James B. Hunt, Jr.

August 27, 1981

WHEREAS, the Honorable Mary N. Pegg, elected Representative of the 29th House District, 1981 General Assembly has now resigned, and

WHEREAS, the provision of General Statutes 163-11 requires that the vacancy created by the resignation of the Honorable Mary N. Pegg be filled by appointment of the person selected by the District Executive Committee of the Republican Party of the 29th House of Representatives District, and

WHEREAS, the Executive Committee of the Republican Party of the 29th House District has notified me of the selection of Frank E. Rhodes, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, to fill said vacancy,

I do by these presents appoint
FRANK E. RHODES
as a member of the
1981 General Assembly

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name and affixed the Great Seal of the State at the Capitol in the City of Raleigh, this twenty-seventh day of August in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred eighty one and in the two hundredth and sixth year of our American Independence.

S/ JAMES B. HUNT, JR.
Governor of North Carolina

S/ THAD EURE
Secretary of State

The following oath of office was administered to Representative Frank E. Rhodes on September 15, 1981 by Secretary of State Thad Eure.

"I, Frank E. Rhodes solemnly swear that I will support and maintain the Constitution and laws of the United States; and

I do solemnly and sincerely swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to the State of North Carolina, and to the constitutional powers and authorities which are or may be established for the government thereof; and that I will endeavor to support, maintain and defend the Constitution and laws of said State, not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States, to the best of my knowledge and ability; and

I do solemnly swear that I will faithfully discharge my duties as a Member of the House of Representatives of the 1981 General Assembly of the State of North Carolina to the best of my skill and ability, so help me, God."

SPECIAL MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

The following Special Messages are received from the Senate:

S. J. R. 1, A JOINT RESOLUTION AMENDING THE JOINT RESOLUTION SETTING THE TIME FOR ADJOURNMENT OF THE 1981 GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The rules are suspended and the resolution is read the first time.

On motion of Representative J. Hunt, the rules are suspended, and the resolution is placed before the House for immediate consideration.

The resolution passes its second reading by electronic vote (106-0).

The resolution passes its third reading and is ordered enrolled.

S. J. R. 2, A JOINT RESOLUTION ADJOURNING THE 1981 EXTRA SESSION SINE DIE.

The rules are suspended and the resolution is read the first time.

On motion of Representative J. Hunt, the rules are suspended, and the resolution is placed before the House for immediate consideration.

The resolution passes its second reading by electronic vote (107-0).

The resolution passes its third reading and is ordered enrolled.

ENROLLED BILLS

The following are properly enrolled, duly ratified, and sent to the office of the Secretary of State:

S. J. R. 1, A JOINT RESOLUTION AMENDING THE JOINT RESOLUTION SETTING THE TIME FOR ADJOURNMENT OF THE 1981 GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

S. J. R. 2, A JOINT RESOLUTION ADJOURNING THE 1981 EXTRA SESSION SINE DIE.

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

SENATE CHAMBER

Mr. Speaker:

It is ordered that a message be sent your Honorable Body respectfully advising that the business of the Senate has been completed and that that Body will be ready to open the doors of the Senate immediately upon receipt of information from your Honorable Body that you are ready to open your doors, so that the gavels may fall simultaneously and adjournment of the 1981 Extra Session may be declared sine die.

Respectfully,
S/ SYLVIA M. FINK
Principal Clerk

A message is ordered sent to the Senate advising them that the House of Representatives has completed its business and stands ready to adjourn sine die.

Pursuant to the information contained in the exchange of messages between the Senate and the House of Representatives and the joint resolution heretofore passed, the Speaker orders the doors of the House opened.

Representative J. Hunt moves, seconded by Representative Nash, that the House adjourn sine die.

The President of the Senate is perceived standing, ready to let fall the gavel. The Speaker sounds the gavel and declares that on motion of Representative J. Hunt, seconded by Representative Nash, and by the authority vested in him as Speaker of the North Carolina House of Representatives, the Extra Session of the 1981 House of Representatives of the General Assembly of North Carolina is adjourned sine die.

S/ GRACE A. COLLINS

PRAYER OFFERED IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES 1981

EXTRA SESSION

by

Dr. Albert G. Edwards
House Chaplain

Monday, October 5, 1981

Eternal and Almighty God, Thou whose love is withheld from no one, and beyond whose brooding care we can never drift, as the men and women of this House once again give their minds to common tasks and toil, help us in this moment of prayer to forget ourselves and think of Thee. Help us to savor anew the words:

"GOD IS OUR REFUGE AND STRENGTH

A VERY PRESENT HELP IN TIME OF TROUBLE."

Therefore will not we fear! Though the earth should change or the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea, we will not fear, for

The Lord of Hosts is with us

The God of Jacob is our refuge

And The God of Jesus is Our Friend. Amen.

APPENDIX

ADDENDUM

It will be noted that a number of bills and resolutions passed second reading and then were read a third time on the same day.

Rule 41(b) states:

No bill shall be read more than once in the same day without the concurrence of two-thirds (2/3) of the members present and voting.

In order to comply with this Rule, no bill which had passed its second reading is read a third time except:

- (1) When a member moves that the Rule be suspended, and this motion carries by at least a two-thirds vote of the members present.
- (2) When the Chair determines that there is no objection from any member present. This constitutes unanimous consent of those members present that Rule 41(b) be suspended.

In these cases, the bill is read a third time.

Grace A. Collins
Principal Clerk

EXTRA SESSION

Rule 11th states:
No bill shall be read more than once in the same day without the concurrence of two-thirds (2/3) of the members present.
In order to comply with this Rule, no bill which had passed the second reading is read a third time except:
(1) When a member offers a bill for amendment and the amendment carries 2/3 at least a two-thirds vote of the members present.
(2) When the Chair determines that there is no objection to the bill being passed. This constitutes a unanimous consent of those members present that Rule 11th be suspended.

In these cases, the bill is read a third time.
During the session on each bill, the House is divided into two sections, one for the bill and one for the amendment. The members of each section are called to the floor in order to vote on the bill and the amendment. The members of the House are divided into two sections, one for the bill and one for the amendment. The members of each section are called to the floor in order to vote on the bill and the amendment.

STRENGTHEN OUR BOND OF UNION

A VERY PRESENT HELP IN TIME OF NEED

There is no one who can help us in our time of need. We must help each other. We must help each other in our time of need. We must help each other in our time of need.

The Lord is our strength and our help.
The Lord is our strength and our help.
The Lord is our strength and our help.

SECOND SESSION

by
Dr. Albert G. Edwards
House Chaplain

Monday, October 5, 1981

Sovereign God, Maker, Defender, Redeemer and Friend, we recall the words:

"In returning and rest ye shall be saved,
In quietness and confidence shall be you."

Our Father, the members of this House have returned not to rest but to wrestle with issues and problems that have no easy solutions. As they get caught up in immediate and important issues, help them to experience the truth that was voiced by Helen Keller "Life is an exciting business and never more exciting than when it is lived for others." We pray in the name of Him who spent and gave His life for others, Amen.

Tuesday, October 6, 1981

Almighty God, we thank You for the interesting beginning of this session, but help us to remember that in work as well as in life, the ending is more important than the beginning.

To assure that the final putt will be as good as the opening drive, help us to hold fast the promise of old:

"In everything, by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto to God, and my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus." Amen.

Thursday, October 8, 1981

Sovereign God, Thou who art known by those who love, who art seen by the pure in heart, and who art heard by those who make time to be still and quiet, as the men and women of this House pursue the duties of another legislative day, help them to remember that although it is hard to face, it is ultimately better to be damned for doing right than praised for doing wrong.

We pray in the name of Him who ever seeks to lead us into truth, Jesus the Christ, Amen.

Friday, October 9, 1981

God of grace and God of glory, we live in a world where there are some things very easy to do.

It is easy to tell others what to do, when I don't have to do it. It is easy to advise, "Grin and bear it," when the "it" is not my affliction.

It is easy to stand in judgment on a violent world and say of ourselves, "God we thank Thee we are not as other men are."

God, help us to pray what is never easy to say: "Forgive my past, amend my present, and by the presence and power of thy Spirit, help me to become what You intend me to be and I can be." Amen.

Saturday, October 10, 1981

Father and Friend, we recall the words of the poet:

"Still still with Thee,
When purple morning breaketh
And the birds waken
And the shadows flee."

And on this Saturday morning, the members of this House can say:

"Still, still with each other
When purple morning breaketh."

Although they are not where they expected to be this morning, may they be thankful that they are able to be up and out. Regardless of the starkness of the night, may they ponder those who would rejoice in the privilege of mobility. Amen.

ADDENDUM

It will be noted that a number of bills and resolutions passed second reading and then were read a third time on the same day.

Rule 41(b) states:

No bill shall be read more than once in the same day without the concurrence of two-thirds (2/3) of the members present and voting.

In order to comply with this Rule, no bill which had passed its second reading is read a third time except:

- /1) When a member moves that the Rule be suspended, and this motion carries by at least a two-thirds vote of the members present.
- (2) When the Chair determines that there is no objection from any member present. This constitutes unanimous consent of those members present that Rule 41(b) be suspended.

In these cases, the bill is read a third time.

Grace A. Collins
Principal Clerk

Thursday, October 29, 1981

The House meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Speaker.

Prayer is offered by Dr. Albert G. Edwards, House Chaplain.

Representative Quinn, for the Committee on Rules and Operation of the House, reports the Journal of July 10 has been examined and found correct. Upon his motion, the Journal is approved as written.

Leaves of absence are granted Representatives Burnley, Lacey, Smith, and Tally for today.

REPORT OF COMMITTEES

The following reports from standing committees are presented:

By Representatives Jones and Lilley for the Committee on Legislative Redistricting:

H. B. 1428, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO APPORTION THE DISTRICTS OF THE NORTH CAROLINA HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, with an unfavorable report as to bill, favorable as to committee substitute bill.

On motion of Representative Jones, the substitute bill is adopted. The original bill is placed on the Unfavorable Calendar.

On motion of Representative Jones, the rules are suspended and the bill is placed before the House for immediate consideration.

Representative Jordan offers Amendment No. 1. The Chair rules the amendment is out of order and it is returned to Representative Jordan.

Representative Watkins moves that the bill be re-referred to the Committee on Courts and Judicial Districts.

Representative Miller moves, seconded by Representative Bundy, that Representative Watkins' motion do lie upon the table. This motion carries by electronic vote (71-34).

Representative Miller moves that the bill be re-referred to the Committee on Legislative Redistricting.

Representative Watkins moves, seconded by Representative Hux, that Representative Miller's motion do lie upon the table. This motion fails by electronic vote (41-63).

Now the question is the motion by Representative Miller that the bill be re-referred to the Committee on Legislative Redistricting.

Representative Miller calls the previous question on his motion and the call is sustained.

The motion carries by electronic vote (82-20).

On motion of Representative J. Hunt, seconded by Representative Messer, the House adjourns to reconvene October 30, 1981 at 11:00 a.m.

It will be found that a number of the most important wars have taken place in the same year.
For this reason, the following table has been prepared, showing the wars which have taken place in each year from 1880 to 1889.
The wars are arranged in chronological order, and the names of the belligerent powers are given.
